Splitting a Woman's Hours

There's the time for cleaning—Time for cooking—Time for visiting—Time for recreation—And time to sit and read the Home Economic and Food pages in the Post-Dispatch, which help to make many tasks easier, and lengthen a home-maker's hours of rest.

Wife Hears Shots

Monti lived at the Lindell avenue address with his wife, his mother and his two sisters. When he was shot down, about 100 feet west of his home, they heard the reports and rushed to his side. His wife was later removed to St. Mary's Hospital, where it was said she is about to become a mother.

TO MR.—DID WILL NOT FOR SON-IN-LAW?

Police Chief Ward last night did not follow his usual custom of taking a Delmar bus to the end of the line at Kingsland avenue, dropping into a fruit store there for a brief chat and then taking another bus to his home. Chief Ward thinks Monti rode home with the Kneass. Monti left his place of business at 5:30 o'clock.

SHUMAKER RELEASED AFTER EXAMINATION GIVEN PRISONERS.

By the Associated Press.

PTTAMVILLE, Ind., Oct. 19.—Dr. E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, was released from the State Penitentiary at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

WIVES WITNESS CRASH.

Wives of four of the bankers, including Mrs. Chanute, who were at the airport waiting for their husbands to land, watched the plane lose altitude for the landing and then suddenly stall, roll forward and plunged into the marsh. Spectators who rushed to the scene found the plane a tangled mass of wreckage. Four of the passengers were caught in the debris, and two had been thrown clear, four of them apparently through the metal cabin roof. The injured were taken to the Atlantic City Hospital where a fractured leg and serious internal injuries. He died about two hours later.

SHUMAKER RELEASED AFTER EXAMINATION GIVEN PRISONERS.

By the Associated Press.

PTTAMVILLE, Ind., Oct. 19.—Dr. E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, was released from the State Penitentiary at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

WIVES WITNESS CRASH.

Wives of four of the bankers, including Mrs. Chanute, who were at the airport waiting for their husbands to land, watched the plane lose altitude for the landing and then suddenly stall, roll forward and plunged into the marsh. Spectators who rushed to the scene found the plane a tangled mass of wreckage. Four of the passengers were caught in the debris, and two had been thrown clear, four of them apparently through the metal cabin roof. The injured were taken to the Atlantic City Hospital where a fractured leg and serious internal injuries. He died about two hours later.

SMITH WEARS PAIR OF SOCKS WITH HIS NAME ON THEM

FIRST DISTRICT TREND APPEARS TO BE TO HOOVER

Religious Prejudice and Disagreement on Prohibition Likely to Wipe Out Democratic Lead.

MAJORITY TO BE SMALL, HOWEVER

Smith Expected to Retain Most of Vote Cast for Late Senator La Follette in 1924.

By CURTIS A. BETTS, A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Oct. 19.—Anti-Smith sentiment among Democrats in the First Congressional District due to religious feeling and to disagreement with him on the prohibition issue appears virtually certain to wipe out this year the usual Democratic majority in the district and to give a small Republican majority.

While Hoover likely will carry the district, indications point to his lead being held to a low figure by the fact that Smith will have an advantage over him among those who voted for the late Senator La Follette in 1924.

The La Follette vote which was of some size in Hannibal and Kirksville, 1135 in the former and 970 in the latter, and amounted to 2639 in the district, is said to be split between Hoover and Smith, though virtually all of it was a Democratic vote when it broke to La Follette. Were it not for the immigration question, and the seeming misunderstanding among laboring men of Gov. Smith's position on the question Smith might be expected to get much more of the La Follette vote than it now seems that he will.

Apparent Misunderstanding. The talk among railroad men in Hannibal is that Smith favors letting down the immigration bars and flooding the country with cheap foreign labor. Most of them have not understood that Hoover and Smith are virtually agreed upon limiting the number of immigrants to that of the present law and that the difference is that Hoover holds to the present ratio of nationalities while Smith would make an earlier census the basis, and on that, there would be fewer immigrants than at present from some countries, and more from others, but the total would be unchanged.

Largely because of the La Follette vote, the usual normal Democratic majority in Marion County (Hannibal) was cut from about 2000 to 321 in the 1924 election.

Because of the defection of Democrats on the religious and prohibition questions, it could not have been expected to return to the 2000 figure this year, but might have approached 1000 if the old Democratic vote which went to La Follette could have been brought back.

Hannibal seems to be one of the few places in the State where there is any considerable Negro vote that there is not a pronounced sentiment among the Negroes for Smith. Democrats here say the Negroes just as they have in previous elections and that there is no expectation that many Negroes here will vote for Smith.

Probable Lineup of Losses. There will be Republican losses to Smith in all of the counties, but not in anything like the proportion there will be Democratic losses to Hoover. Republican Catholic voters generally were for Smith, but there is a heavy Republican Catholic population, and there are reports from all the counties of some Republican farmers who will refuse to support Hoover. The district consists of 10 counties in the northeast quarter of the State. It includes two counties which usually return heavy Republican majorities, several of which are heavily Democratic and several which usually are close.

While the district seemingly will go for Hoover, there appears little doubt of the re-election of Congressman Romjue, a Democrat. Romjue almost invariably runs ahead of the remainder of the Democratic ticket, having carried it in 1924 by more than 10,000, while Senator Hawes had a majority of slightly more than 6000 in the district.

Usually Goes Democratic. If the district goes for Hoover over Smith, it will be the first time in recent years, probably ever, that it has been carried by a Republican presidential candidate. Cox carried it by 1199 in 1920, Reed for Senator by 1153 in 1922, Davis by 1849 in 1924 and Hawes for Senator by 6137 in 1926.

Gang Victim and Bride

WEDDING picture of Joseph Monti, who was assassinated last night in University City, and his wife, who was prostrated with grief and is in a serious condition at St. Mary's Hospital. The photograph was taken after their marriage at the St. Louis Cathedral last Thanksgiving day.

It is estimated that it probably will go for Hoover by about 250.

Knox-Harding carried it by 459, Brewster by 3, Davis by 431 and Hawes by 933. There is considerable anti-Smith sentiment, but it is offset to some extent by the fact that there are a good many Catholics in the county and they are expected to support Smith. A Smith majority of about 200 is looked for.

Putnam—A strong Republican county, but with probably a greater or Republican defection on the farm issue than any other county in the district, but there is a greater proportion defection from Smith. Harding carried the county by 2157, Brewster by 283, Coolidge by 1543 and Williams by 1017. It is expected that the Hoover majority will reach about 2000.

Conditions in Rest of Area. Schuyler—usually safely Democratic, though Harding carried it by 14, and Brewster by 28. Davis carried it by 480 and Hawes by 594. There is much opposition to Smith among Democrats, and a Smith majority in excess of 200 is believed out of the question.

Scott—Harding carried it by 277, Reed by 88, Davis by 213 and Hawes by 427. A Smith majority of about 200 is looked for.

Shelby—Cox carried it by 1513, Reed by 952, Davis by 2220 and Hawes by 1413. This is one of the Smith "crout" spots, while he undoubtedly will carry the county, indications point to a majority much less than Davis in 1924. Democratic leaders are hopeful that it will be brought up to about 500.

On these estimates, which are not intended to be predictions, but only to show the present trend in the counties, a Hoover majority in the district of something like 1000 may not be far from the facts.

was married at the St. Louis Cathedral to Miss Maria Randazzo, daughter of Antonio Randazzo, well-to-do merchant, 4463 Lindell boulevard. The following month, Randazzo caused the arrest of a young Italian shoemaker, who persisted in wooing Randazzo's daughter by mail and sending threats. The shoemaker was released on his promise to leave the city, and police put him on a train for St. Louis.

A coroner's verdict of homicide at the hands of a person unknown was returned today at Kirkwood after Keebler, the witness to the murder, and police had testified. Members of the coroner's jury later suggested that the man who wooed Monti's wife by mail be arrested for questioning.

Relatives Know of No Motive. Both Randazzo and Joseph Sciales, who was Monti's employer and brother-in-law, said he was an industrious young man, who had no enemies and had received no threats, so far as they knew. They said they knew of no motive for the murder.

Monti had been a ward of Sciales' partner, Marion Costa, and had been brought up in the grocery business by Costa. When Monti married Randazzo's daughter, Randazzo gave him financial assistance in buying the Lindell avenue residence, an expensive two-story brick house.

At the time Santino was shot to death in the Sciales grocery by a man who escaped, Monti was out of the city, according to his family. The Santino killing was witnessed by Costa and the secretary of the firm.

Deputies Approve Bishop's Action. WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The House of Deputies of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in general convention here, today approved the action yesterday of the House of Bishops in postponing indefinitely consideration of eliminating the 39 articles of religion taken over from the English church at the time of the American Revolution. The deputies' concurrence was a mere formality.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 19.—With every hour that passed today without news of Commander H. C. MacDonald, hope for the British aviator's safety grew fainter until by mid-afternoon it was the general belief that he was the nineteenth person to lose his life in attempting to fly the Atlantic. He left Harbor Grace, N. F., Wednesday at 10:51 a. m. St. Louis time, and was last reported at 6:30 p. m. the same day. He had only 80 hours flying experience.

At the most his tiny Moth plane in which he hoped off alone from Newfoundland could hold only enough gasoline for 35 hours of flying and the thirty-fifth hour passed at 5:51 a. m. (9:51 p. m. yesterday central standard time).

Had he been forced down on the Atlantic by the failure of his motor or ice forming on the wings of the plane, it was thought that MacDonald would have been able to keep afloat not more than 20 minutes by partly empty gasoline tanks. He had no wireless and in that brief span of time could only send up flares in the slim hope that some vessel might come to his aid.

Hopeful Surmises. The chief ground for what hope remained was that he might have crossed the Atlantic with his Gypsy Moth De Havilland and landed at some isolated spot on the Irish or Scotch coast.

By the Associated Press. SHANGHAI, China, Oct. 19.—C. T. Wang, Nationalist Foreign Minister, has addressed a note to the treaty Powers demanding their immediate relinquishment of extra-territorial rights.

The principle of extra-territoriality by which foreigners are subject to the jurisdiction of officials of their own nationality has been accepted by China from the earliest days of intercourse with the outside world, says the China Year Book.

Germany and Austria-Hungary lost their extra-territorial rights in 1917 and subsequently Germany, Bolivia, Persia and Chile renounced the principle of consular jurisdiction. In 1924 the Soviet Government also agreed to relinquish the rights of extra-territoriality.

Commercial treaties concluded between China and Great Britain, the United States and Japan contain a clause stating that the respective Western Powers agree to give every assistance to the reform of China's judicial system and also would be prepared to relinquish extra-territorial rights when satisfied that the state of the Chinese laws, the arrangements for their administration and other considerations warranted it.

In January, 1926, a commission was inaugurated "to inquire into the present practice of extra-territorial jurisdiction in China" and into the laws and judicial system and the methods of judicial administration of China, looking toward eventual relinquishment by the Powers of the right of extra-territoriality.

On Oct. 5 China's new constitution was promulgated, one of the articles dealing with the reform of the Chinese judicial system.

CHINA IN DEMAND THAT POWERS GIVE UP SPECIAL RIGHTS

The Graf Zeppelin arrived, the plane carried Miss Herta Junkers, daughter of the German aircraft magnate, Baroness von Brandenstein, and newspapermen over New York to welcome the dirigible.

Mahoney Sees Accident. King, who has an excellent reputation as a commercial pilot, had flown the plane here from Curtis Field, N. Y., yesterday morning, bringing Harry H. Knight, another of Col. Lindbergh's backers and a party of eight friends to the convention. Among them was P. F. Mahoney, president of the Ryan Aircraft Corporation, St. Louis, which built the Spirit of St. Louis plane used by Col. Charles Lindbergh.

Mahoney was at the airport and witnessed the accident. About 3:30 o'clock the plane went up on the sight-seeing trip with the party of eight. It flew up and down the coast until short before 5 o'clock, when darkness was falling swiftly. It then headed toward the airport grounds here.

According to witnesses, when about 2000 feet up, the plane suddenly faltered and then plunged directly down in a fall described as "a tail spin with nose down."

It hurtled through telephone and telegraph wires, which somewhat broke the fall, and crashed into the mud near the bridge, narrowly missing a 40-foot stream of water about 20 feet deep.

Four of those on the plane were catapulted out into the mud and the others remained entangled in the wreckage of the plane. The ship was valued at $13,000.

"I do not know what happened," said Little. "All I know is that we turned over and then came down. It was all over in an instant it seems to me."

Mahoney Describes Accident. Mahoney said that one of the passengers was sitting opposite the pilot and, in his opinion, grasped the controls, causing the fall. "I do not think there was any fault with the plane," said Mahoney. "It flew perfectly on the trip here. When the plane fell, there was no movement of the controls at all during the plunge and no apparent effort to bring it out of the spin. However, if the controls were not held by someone, any effort to right the ship would have been apparent. There would have been some movement, at least, but I saw none. I think that one of the passengers must have grabbed the controls, probably frightened at the sharp bank of the plane."

Dysart, who was president of the Investment Bankers a year ago, was one of the principal backers of Lindbergh's cross-Atlantic flight. He formed a syndicate of St. Louis bankers and business men that underwrote this record-establishing event. Chautau was reputed to have been interested financially in the airplane industry.

Dysart Active in Air Circles; Little Moved Away Three Years Ago. Dysart, a member of the investment firm of Knight, Dysart & Gamble, resides at 13 Kingsbury place. He is a member of the Air Board of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce and has participated in the financing of a number of airplane manufacturing and transportation companies. He is a former president of the Investment Bankers' Association.

Little was formerly in the investment business in St. Louis with offices in the Merchants' Leclade Building, but moved to Chicago with his family three years ago when he became executive secretary of the Investment Bankers' Association.

WHEN HE GOT $12,195 GRAFT IN PHILADELPHIA

Matthew Patterson, G. O. P. Legislator and Ward Leader Takes Stand in Own Behalf at Trial.

OFFICER DEPOSITED $8000, CLERK SAYS

Lawyer Tells of Making Collection of Protection Money Received From Saloon Keepers.

By the Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Matthew Patterson, State legislator and Republican ward leader, on trial charged with conspiracy to extort protection money from saloon keepers, denied on the witness stand today that he had engineered a scheme to collect $12,195 from violators of the liquor law. Charles W. Schoenleber, Police Captain in command of the district in the territory where Patterson held political power, is a co-defendant. It has been testified that $55 was collected every two weeks from each of 21 saloon keepers by William Peters, a saloon keeper, and turned over to J. L. Ehrenreich, a young lawyer, to be later given to Patterson and Schoenleber. In all $12,195 was collected in about six months.

Denies He Got Money.

On the stand in his own defense today Patterson entered a general denial of testimony that he received the money or that he told Ehrenreich the money Peters was collecting was for campaign purposes. He told of introducing Ehrenreich to Peters at a political club, but explained that Peters was looking for a lawyer and he hoped to throw a little business in Ehrenreich's direction.

The Commonwealth closed its case after a bank clerk had testified that Schoenleber had deposited more than $3000 last summer in less than two months.

Ehrenreich, yesterday, told how Patterson had employed him to go to the saloon of William Peters, get the protection money Peters had collected from the saloon keepers, and every month hand over $1240 to "Charley" Schoenleber.

Says He Kept $200 a Month.

Ehrenreich testified he kept $200 a month "for services" and said he did not know the original source of the money or why it was collected.

Ehrenreich told of his alarm when the special grand jury under the guidance of District Attorney Monaghan began delving into police bribery.

He said he appealed to Patterson for advice, warning the ward leader and legislator that "I'll have to tell the truth." Patterson's only advice, said Ehrenreich, was to "forget it."

Saloon Man Tells of Collections.

William Peters, the saloonkeeper who collected the money and turned it over to Ehrenreich, was cross-examined by John R. K. Scott, Patterson's lawyer, before Ehrenreich took the stand.

He had previously testified that he collected $55 every two weeks from each of more than 20 saloonkeepers, many of whom also testified and said the money was paid attorney fees and "to keep the cops away."

Six police captains were questioned yesterday by the grand jury investigating bootleggers and police bribery, virtually bringing to an end District Attorney Monaghan's inquiry into the wealth of the district commanders.

When the grand jury concluded the case on the day only three of the 43 captains in the city had not been examined.

Monaghan declined to disclose what he had learned from those under examination. He intimated after the grand jury had made a report to Judge Edwin O. Lewis regarding the wealth of the captains he would take up the examination of former members of Unit No. 1, disbanded raiding squad.

HICKMAN HANGED AT SAN QUENTIN FOR KILLING GIRL

Most spiritual advisers after he entered San Quentin prison.

"Most atrocious crime in history," Apparently indifferent to the fate awaiting him, Hickman awoke this morning after a short but sound sleep and chatted with guards. He reviewed his crime career from the first time he held up a drug clerk to the kidnapping and murder of Marian Parker. "This was the most atrocious crime in history," he said.

When a big breakfast was brought in, Hickman left it virtually untouched. He chose to spend the last few moments of his life with Father Fleming.

Earlier he wrote farewell letters to his mother, is uncle, Horace Hickman, and his chief attorney, Jerome Walsh.

Plays Jazz at 3 A. M.

The photograph upon which he played antiquated syncopated tunes last night was silent. The flowers were placed about the death bed yesterday at this request were slightly wilted, but still gave a

Girl, 16, Chaplin's New Leading Woman

MISS VIRGINIA CHERILL.

MISS CHERILL, 16 years old, of Chicago, who has never acted in the movies, was selected, after a screen test, to play the leading role opposite Charles Chaplin in the comedian's next picture. Her mother, it is said, objects to her acting, and will attempt to dissuade her. Chaplin married and was subsequently divorced by two young women who had supported him on the screen—Mildred Harris and Lita Grey.

slight color to the cheerless room.

About 3 o'clock this morning he awakened and asked for the phonograph. It was wound up and a few jazz songs sounded through the darkness of the barren walls.

The execution chamber was filled to capacity with witnesses, newspaper men and others well before the final hour. Outside the gates, scores of others waited. Guards announced they had refused a score or more of applications for admission into the death chamber.

Hickman yesterday wrote a note to Russell St. Clair Beitzel of Los Angeles, now under death sentence for murder. Beitzel was Hickman's cellmate for a time before the latter was removed to the death cell.

"Not a Bit Frightened."

The note said: "I'm very comfortable here. Russ, I'm not a bit frightened either. Tomorrow I'm going to walk up like a man. Say goodbye to my friends for me and tell them I'll see them soon."

Hickman transformed the death cell into a room of flowers and music yesterday. He asked Warden James Holohan for the phonograph which is passed around among the prisoners in "condemned row," and for flowers. A big bunch of red petunias was gathered for him from the prison garden.

The youth spent nearly half an hour arranging the bouquet, and alternately played the phonograph and wrote letters.

Story of Kidnaping and Murder of Marian Parker.

The kidnaping and killing of Marian Parker in Los Angeles last December was an unusually shocking murder. Apparently with no other motive than to commit so frightful a crime that he would be remembered in criminal annals, Hickman brought a brief life of petty crime to a climax with the murder.

Last Dec. 15 he called at the school Marian Parker attended, telling a teacher that her father, Perry M. Parker, an officer in the First National Bank at Los Angeles, was injured and wished his daughter to return home. Hickman represented himself to be an employee in the bank.

As Marian had a twin sister in the same school, the teacher asked him which girl was wanted. "The youngest one," he replied. The teacher, thinking the pleasant-faced youth wanted the smaller of the girls, asked if it was Marian he meant, and he said it was.

Hickman later said he drove the girl to his apartment, and told her she had been kidnapped. He said she thought it was great fun, and seemed thrilled. That night he took the girl to a neighborhood motion picture performance.

Got Ransom But Killed Girl.

Meanwhile he said he had decided to hold her for ransom, and directed a letter to her father asking for $1500, signing it "The Fox."

The next night Hickman said, the idea came to him to kill the girl, although he did not want to as he rather liked her, and she seemed to enjoy the kidnapping experience. The murder was committed in Hickman's apartment. He said he choked her with a towel. Confronted with the problem of disposing of the body and not obtaining the ransom, Hickman lacked the legs off, mutilated the torso, which he stuffed with towels, sewed the cyclide open so that the girl would appear alive, and packed the dismembered body into a suitcase and packages which he carried from the apartment.

Having previously arranged a rendezvous with the child's father, Hickman drove to the spot with the upper part of the girl's body propped in the seat beside him.

When Parker appeared Hickman, who was masked, collected the money, drove a block further down the street, pushed the body out, and fled. The girl's legs and other parts of her body were found, later in a park several miles away.

Traced by Stolen Auto.

The discovery of an abandoned coupe which it later developed was stolen from a physician in Kansas City, Mo., by Hickman, gave a clue that helped in tracing the murderer. Fingerprints were found on the windshield that tallied with Hickman's, which had been taken when he became involved in a minor forgery at Parker's bank, where he worked for a short time.

The killer faced the police unmoved for two days, even welcoming them to his apartment, where markings on towels stuffed into the body led the search. He was not suspected then, however, as he brazenly told the officers: "I hope you catch the fiend."

At length, fearing arrest, he fled. Stealing and abandoning motor cars to steal others, Hickman kept a jump ahead of his pursuers as he fled north to Seattle, while spending the identified ransom money in $20 bills as he went.

Captured in Oregon.

He turned back to Portland, Ore., fled east to Pendleton, Ore., where he was caught Dec. 23 by Chief of Police Tom Gurdane of Pendleton and Lieut. Buck Lleuallen of the State traffic force. Nearly $100,000 had then been raised as a reward for his capture. He confessed readily, at first saying an accomplice committed the actual murder. Later Hickman confessed he had planned and executed the crime unaided.

It developed afterward Hickman, who had graduated high in his high school class at Kansas City, had committed holdups in many Eastern and Western states.

Hickman participated in one other murder in California, that of C. Ivy Toms, Rosehill, Cal., pharmacist, on Christmas eve, 1926. Hickman and Welby Hunt, 17 years old, were charged with the murder committed during a holdup. Hunt served a life sentence in San Quentin for the crime.

Insanity Plea Fails.

At his trial for Marian Parker's murder Hickman pleaded "not guilty by reason of insanity" under a new California law. Jerome Walsh, young Kansas City attorney, was retained as chief counsel. The Los Angeles Superior Court found Hickman sane, hence guilty, as he admitted the facts alleged.

The State Supreme Court sustained the verdict and the Supreme Court of the United States declined to review the case.

In his last days Hickman sought solace in religion and in letter writing. He directed many letters to police chiefs throughout the country confessing to holdups which he had committed, and saying he was sorry he could not return the money stolen.

BRITISH EDITOR OBSERVES NEED OF RAPID TRANSIT

"But Don't Build Elevated Lines," Visitor Advises—Others Predict Great Growth for City.

Members of the party of 14 British journalists who today concluded a three-day visit to St. Louis, in response to inquiries, gave varied impressions of St. Louis. They asked that their names not be connected with their opinions so that they might speak freely.

All agreed that the great diversification of industry here was obvious, and asked if the city did not expect a great growth in the future. One noted that the tendency was to adopt the Ford plan of production—each man to his task and perfection in that task.

"Is it not deadening?" he asked. "Is it too soon to recognize the effect upon the worker? I saw one man in a brewery who did nothing but fasten down the lid of a case with wire. 'What a dull prospect that man must have!'"

Another who visited several department stores, his first in America, said he was surprised in looking for an American toy, to find nothing to send his young son at home that he could not have duplicated in his home city of 150,000 population.

Finds German Toys Lead.

"Germany seems to have captured your toy market again," he said. In general, the merchandise throughout the store was much the same, he thought, as displayed in English stores.

"I noted the emphasis in advertising cards attached to goods upon the fact that the wares were 'imported,'" he observed. "So it is as if we were in England. Now our Government is fostering a movement to induce the people to buy English-made goods. At has been effective. I saw a shoe factory here and asked in a shoe department to see a pair of St. Louis shoes. The salesman said there were none in stock."

The party rode along the river front yesterday afternoon aboard the city harbor boat. They found the view very drab, and several inquired whether there was not some plan to dress up the banks. The visitors appeared interested in the statement that grain loaded on barges at St. Louis is carried to New Orleans and transferred to ocean freighters and for that purpose St. Louis might be regarded as a seaport. They were told that the new Cahokia power plant of Union Electric Light & Power Co. was an example of the movement in America to centralize the production of electricity, and remarked in return that England was just beginning to see the savings to be effected in "superpower" systems.

Surprised at Plaza Project.

The journalist from Belfast was astounded when he learned that the city proposed to destroy several blocks of property and convert the area into a "plaza."

"The man who proposed that in Belfast would be sent to an insane asylum," he remarked. One observed the lack of rapid transit.

"But never build elevated lines."

"What is the duty?" he inquired. The bookeller replied: "Oh, the only countries which impose a duty upon knowledge are Spain and the United States."

The party went by bus today to Columbia to visit the University of Missouri School of Journalism, and to proceed thence to Kansas City.

MAIL CARRIER UNABLE TO FIND HERBERT HOOVER

Letter Sent to Him in Washington Is Returned to Sender.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The postal service in Washington was unable to find Herbert Hoover and consequently a letter written to him by the Cleanliness Institute of New York was returned to the sender marked "unknown."

The letter was addressed to Hoover as president of the American Child Health Association. The Republican nominee is president of this organization and branch offices were maintained in the capital, with the main office in New York.

The mail carriers, unable to locate the offices at the address indicated, "Penn Avenue and 15th Street," marked the letter "try Central Station," but this also failed and the letter was returned to the Cleanliness Institute.

A. T. & T. Buys Radio Patents.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The American Telephone and Telegraph Co. announced today that it had purchased a non-exclusive license to use the Hazeltine radio patents.

It is something besides street car license was acquired primarily for research looking to the improvement of radio telephony and that it was too early to predict what the results of the studies might be.

he advised. "They are a terrible nuisance."

He said that St. Louis was a larger city than he had expected to see and predicted that in so large a city something besides street cars would be demanded for moving people about.

Another remarked that the people not only in St. Louis but everywhere the party had gone seemed friendly.

"An Englishman would not dream of approaching a stranger, holding out his hand and saying: 'I am Mr. So and So.' Yet I find that common practice in America, a great delight. How stupid it is of us to go about wrapped up in ourselves."

Contrast in Civic Spirit.

Civic spirit seemed to be a characteristic of American cities, still another thought. He contrasted that spirit with almost a total lack of concerted go-ahead to be found in English cities.

"Not more than one or two of our cities have civic spirit as your cities show it," he said.

The visitors were guests of the St. Louis chapter of the English Speaking Union at luncheon yesterday in Hotel Statler. Frank V. Hammar and J. Lionberger Davis presided, calling on five members of the party for talks.—F. Lawrence Johnson, managing editor of Northeastern Daily Gazette; Henry Collinson Owen of the London Daily Telegraph; P. B. M. Roberts of the Scotsman; William Clarke of the Belfast Telegraph. The chairman of the party, Ralph D. Blumfield, president of the Institute of English Journalists and editor of the London Telegraph.

In proposing profitable activities for the Union, Roberts recounted that recently he bought some books in England to send to his son at school in France.

"What is the duty?" he inquired. The bookeller replied: "Oh, the only countries which impose a duty upon knowledge are Spain and the United States."

The party went by bus today to Columbia to visit the University of Missouri School of Journalism, and to proceed thence to Kansas City.

MAIL PILOT FOUND DEAD IN WRECKAGE OF PLANE

Craft of William C. Hopson Destroyed by Fire Near Polk, Pa.

POLK, Pa., Oct. 19.—The burned plane and cremated body of Airmail Pilot William C. Hopson were found three miles southwest of here early today by searchers who had set out to look for the plane after receiving reports of flames having been dropped early yesterday.

Planes from Clarion, Pa., and W. L. Smith, superintendent of the airmail route, flying from Cleveland, O., traversed the region between Clarion and Cleveland yesterday without finding any trace of the missing ship. Their search, for the most part, was made north of here.

Hopson's body was found in a small patch of woods. Soon after it was found, a guard was placed about the fallen plane and its pilot. No attempt was made to remove the body from the debris. It was presumed that it would not be removed until officials of the air mail had inspected the wreckage.

While report of a light bursting from the ship was taken to indicate that Hopson had dropped a flare in an attempt to find a suitable landing place, belief was expressed today that an explosion occurred while the plane was in mid-air.

Hopson was flying the mail route between New York and Cleveland. He was due to arrive in the Ohio city at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Yesterday residents of this town reported that at 2 a. m. they saw the plane traveling westward and that a bright light burst from the craft as it passed beyond a hill. The light was thought to be a flare.

Hopson was out of the dangerous Pennsylvania mountain region when he crashed. He passed over Clarion, about 30 miles east of here, almost on schedule time.

Spinal Meningitis Closes Academy.

By the Associated Press.

MEXICO, Mo., Oct. 19.—Two cases of spinal meningitis, one of them resulting fatally, have caused the closing of the Missouri Military Academy here. The school will reopen Tuesday. Dan Franklin of Kansas City, Mo., died Sunday. Robert Hansbarger of Winnetka, Kan., is well on the way to recovery. Col. E. W. Warburton, president, said. State health officials are at the academy and have taken cultures of all students. They informed Col. Warburton, he said, that "everything is fine now."

Episcopal Church Body Elects Them at Washington Meeting.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church today elected the following missionary Bishops:

For Wyoming, the Rev. George H. Thomas, rector of St. Paul's Church, Chicago; for Nevada, the Rev. Frederick Deane Goodwin, Suffragan Bishop William M. Thomas of Southern Brazil; for Tohoku, Japan, the Rev. Norman S. Binsard, former dean of the Cathedral at Tokyo. The confirmation of these elections by the House of Deputies is necessary to the final choice.

League. The delegation, claiming to represent 500,000 trade unionists, presented to the nominee a resolution attacking the Republican party on its farm relief, prohibition, labor and other stands and praising Smith's "profound humanitarianism" and "ideals of Americanism."

In a brief reply, the Democratic standard bearer thanked the delegation for its support and promised he would devote an entire speech to labor soon, probably in Boston.

In answer to a question during the press conference, the nominee disclosed that before the campaign closes he will discuss foreign relations and reorganization of the Federal Government.

Asked why he had not talked on international matters before this, the nominee replied that he had not yet reached that point.

"This campaign has two and a half weeks to go," he said. "I have been dealing with one subject at a time."

HELD UP, ROBBED, TIED TO TREE THREE HOURS

W. J. Spies Says Prospective Buyer Took Auto—Car Found Abandoned Later.

For nearly three hours yesterday, W. J. Spies, 4410 Hereford street, salesman for the Midwest Motors Co., 2621 Locust boulevard, struggled to free himself from a tree in St. Louis County to which he was tied by two men who robbed him of 80 cents and a Chrysler roadster belonging to the Midwest Co.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning a well-dressed man about 35 years old, entered the Midwest Co.'s show rooms and asked for a demonstration in a roadster. Spies took the man out in a new car. On reaching Clayton road the man asked to take the wheel. Spies turned the wheel over to him and the man drove rapidly westward to Speede road, into which he turned. About two blocks from Clayton road a man appeared at the roadside and the driver stopped the car, at the same time drawing a revolver and commanding Spies to walk into the woods nearby.

The two men tied Spies' hands and feet together, then tied him to a tree. To make his escape more difficult they fastened his head to the tree with adhesive tape. They then searched him and departed in the car.

Spies was unable to attract the attention of passersby because of the distance separating him from Speede road. Following a struggle lasting nearly three hours he succeeded in freeing himself and told his story to police and county authorities.

The automobile was found abandoned near Affton, in St. Louis county last night. It contained a dozen empty whisky cartons, leading police to the theory that the machine was used to run liquor in the county.

MISSIONARY BISHOPS CHOSEN

POMERENE'S VOTE FORECAST

Predicts Smith Will Carry Missouri, Indiana and Kentucky. By the Associated Press.

QUINCY, Ill., Oct. 19.—Former Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio predicted that Indiana, Kentucky, and Missouri would go to Gov. Smith by heavy majorities, in a talk last night before a Democratic rally. He charged the Republican administration with responsibility for the oil scandals and pleaded for a Democratic farm vote.

$100,000,000 DEFICIT FACED, SAYS GEN. LORD

Budget Director Tells Illinois Chamber of Commerce That "We Accept the Challenge."

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The declaration that the United States Government faces a $100,000,000 deficit by June, 1929, was made last night by Gen. Herbert M. Lord, Director of the Bureau of the Budget, in a speech before the annual meeting of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce. "We are concerned, but not discouraged," he said.

Lord declared the Treasury had a prospective surplus of $252,000,000 for next June, the end of the fiscal year, but that this surplus "has melted away as the result of new legislation and the revision of the tax laws."

"Today," said the budget director, "a threatened deficit is a challenge; and we accept the challenge. We are going to see that not one Federal dollar is sent on a doubtful mission and we are fighting today as we never have fought before for a balanced budget."

Lord called attention to the debt reduction from $26,000,000,000 to $15,000,000,000 as of June 30, last, and characterized it as "one of the most extraordinary financial achievements in history."

"We have saved you," he said, "one billion dollars a year since we first began liquidating our debts, and you receive it with the same enthusiasm as you do an appointment with your dentist."

The Government, he said, never was conducted so efficiently as today. "This is not the work of chance, but is the logical outgrowth of efficiency made possible by the people in Federal employ. To save for the people is the inspiring keynote of this drive in the interests of economy and efficiency," he said.

Lord recounted the yearly surpluses of the last seven years and explained how the savings were effected. He was introduced by Vice President Charles G. Dawes, who declared Lord "accomplished what the people recognize as one of the greatest business reforms in the history of the budget."

AGAINST $75,000,000 BONDS Farmers' Union of Missouri Opposes Issue for Roads.

By the Associated Press. CARROLLTON, Mo., Oct. 18.—Thomas M. Morrison, secretary of the Farmers' Union of Missouri, announced the Union had adopted resolutions opposing the $75,000,000 road bond issue at its convention in Ridgeway. His statement, he said, was issued to deny a report the Union had approved the bond program. The farmers favored a "pay as you go" plan, Morrison said.

GOVERNOR SMITH ASSERTS MELLON 'DUCKS THE ISSUE'

Accuses Treasury Secretary of "Denying" Statements Not in Sedalia Address and Modifying Claims.

By PAUL Y. ANDERSON,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Gov. Alfred E. Smith yesterday made a vigorous reply to the charge of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, that Smith had misrepresented the facts in his speech on governmental economy at Sedalia, Mo., Tuesday night. He accused the Secretary of "denying" statements which were not contained in the speech, in an attempt to mislead the public about what was actually said there. Moreover, he accused the Secretary of having modified his own claims since making a recent radio speech. The Governor's reply to Mellon was made at a press conference in his suite at the Congress Hotel. He declined to discuss or disclose the subject on which he will speak here tonight, but displayed considerable interest in newspapers containing Mellon's charge that Smith had been guilty of many gross and glaring inaccuracies at Sedalia.

Charges Mellon With Omission.

"Mr. Mellon entirely ducks the issue," he said. "He leaves out of his statement that important word which he used over the radio—'reduction.' In his radio speech he said that Democrats were refusing to give the Republicans credit for reducing the cost of Government. And I said that was right, because the cost hadn't been reduced. Now he talks about tax reduction, and says nothing about reducing expenditures."

"I did not deny that taxes had been reduced since the war. Of course, they have. It would have been impossible to avoid reducing them, unless they simply stood on the Capitol and scattered the money over the City of Washington. Mr. Mellon talks about my ridiculing the little items of saving in the Government. I did not ridicule them in the sense of 'denying' them; I ridiculed the idea of the Government putting out such petty stuff, and attempting to convince the people that $2,000,000,000 had been saved by such methods."

"He says," one of the correspondents remarked, "that these little economies are simply examples of the great ones?"

"Why doesn't he cite the great ones?" retorted Gov. Smith. "What is the use of talking about saving $2,000,000,000, and illustrating it with half a dozen items totaling about $34. The point I made at Sedalia was that all this ridiculous stuff was being put out in an effort to deceive the public."

The Governor reiterated that the significant and important fact is that it costs $200,000,000 more a year to operate the Government now than it did when President Coolidge was inaugurated.

"Will Mr. Mellon deny that?" he asked.

"He keeps talking about tax reduction. Well, does he suppose that anybody would continue wartime taxes 10 years after the war was over? As a matter of fact, Mr. Mellon himself made a speech before a Chamber of Commerce in 1923, in which he gave Carter Glass, his Democratic predecessor, the credit for starting tax reduction. He said in so many words that he was carrying out the system inaugurated by his predecessor."

Concerning Mellon's statement that Smith had been misinformed as to the appropriation of money for a Chicago postoffice site, the Governor replied bluntly that "If Mellon is right, the public record at Washington is wrong."

Mellon had declared that "the most nearly accurate statement in the Sedalia speech was Gov. Smith's admission that the finances of the Federal Government were a Chinese puzzle to him."

"I admit that I cannot understand their system," the Governor reiterated. "If it is a Chinese puzzle to me, with my 25 years of experience in dealing in governmental figures, how is the man on the sidewalk to understand it? That is the answer to that."

NEW STAR IS DISCOVERED

Found by Dr. Walter Baade of the University of Hamburg, Oct. 19.—Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 19.—Discovery of a new star by Dr.

Walter Baade of the University of Hamburg, Germany, in the remote spiral nebula, Messier 33, was announced yesterday in a cablegram received by the Harvard Observatory from Copenhagen. The star is of sixteenth magnitude and importance is placed on the discovery since it will help to determine more accurately the distance and dimensions of Messier 33, which is one of the largest and brightest "stellar universes."

News of the discovery has been sent to every American observatory equipped with telescopes large enough to permit the study of the star.

Injured in Slide of Stone.

"ST. LOUIS' GREATEST STORE FOR MEN" ~ BOYD-RICHARDSON

Boyd's

Variety of Value Group

In Boyd's Value Group you are not required to fit your figure to the fashion by being confined to two or three models. The Value Group presents a variety which enables you to fit fashion to your figure. There is a big selection of authentically styled models from which you can safely choose the style most appropriate for your physique and preference. If you want to see where value finds its strongest expression, we suggest that you inspect the great variety of patterns, weaves and colors in Boyd's Value Group.

Shoulders are a bit broader, waistlines a trifle more defined and lapels peaked and with longer sweep to the junction point, although notched lapels are still good. Two-button, three-button and double-breasted models will continue to be shown. Double-breasted and Tattersal vests will be worn this fall but the conservative single-breasted vest promises to lead in popularity. Trousers are fuller about the thighs with more taper to the bottom than heretofore...pleated waists are shown with double-breasted vests. Medium to dark shades are the tones for fall suits in plain colors or faint stripes.

VALUE GROUP Greater Than Ever

Pledgeworth

Old standards are far surpassed in the new fall Pledgeworth Suits. Better fabrics, better patterns, better tailoring, better fit and accurate interpretation of correct style combine to make the Fall Pledgeworth Suits the finest we have ever shown...and they are truly astounding values at thirty-five dollars. As usual they guarantee satisfaction or your money will be refunded.

$44

Boyd's Fifties

These suits are the result of planning over a long period of time, to bring to the man who has fifty dollars to spend, the utmost in style and value. They have the style points well dressed men insist upon. Their rich silk linings give them a luxurious feel...and the carefully selected wools and fine tailoring qualify them to be the top ranking member of the Value Group.

Questionnaires on a Model City. The Chamber of Commerce yesterday sent out more than 4000 questionnaires to representative business men, seeking their ideas as to ways and means of making the city.

St. Louis a model city. Harold M. Bixby, chairman of the board, said the questionnaire "will give every member of the Chamber a chance to do something constructive for the city."

WISCONSIN GOVERNOR IN CITY FOR HOOVER

Zimmerman Says Tammany Hall Has Always Favored Unrestricted Immigration.

Gov. Fred R. Zimmerman of Wisconsin discussed tariff, immigration, labor and farm relief issues in a Hoover campaign speech last night at Jeffia Hall, Jefferson and Lafayette avenues.

"It is important to protect our workers by the protective tariff," Zimmerman said, "and it is just as important to protect them from the competition growing out of increased immigration. If we admit increased immigration, we cannot send the immigrants back. Once here, they also are entitled to our protection."

"Tammany Hall, of which Gov. Smith is a creature, has always voted in Congress overwhelmingly to let down the bars and let immigrants come in unrestrictedly. If Tammany had its way, we would not have our present protective measures against undue immigrant invasions. We might have 6,000,000 more in this country than we have."

Circuit Clerk John Schmoll, who presided, ventured the assertion that Gov. Smith had "lost 10,000 votes" by his visit to St. Louis Monday.

"I was shocked to see him sitting on the back of an auto, looking as if he had had a bad night before," Schmoll remarked.

KIDNAPERS ATTACK GIRL, 12

Della Mae Clark Found Wandering on Road Near Mattoon, Ill.

MATTUON, Ill., Oct. 19.—Having been held captive for more than 24 hours by two kidnapers who attacked her, 12-year-old Della Mae Clark, a school girl, was found today wandering on a highway near Mattoon in a dazed and serious condition.

Ernest Schaffer, 21, of Montrose, and Everett Curtner, 17, of Cumberland County, are under arrest accused of abducting and attacking the girl.

TIP NO SUBSTITUTE
LIQUOR SEARCH WARRANT

General Judge Faris Declares Dry Agents Unjustified in Acting on Anonymous Call.

A telephone call to prohibition agents, whether the caller gives his name or not, does not justify searching an automobile for intoxicating liquor without a search warrant, Federal Judge Faris ruled today.

"Common decency demands that that be the law," he remarked. "Otherwise, any citizen might be put to annoyance or embarrassment or worse, at any time, by an enemy."

Prohibition agents had testified that a man telephoned them three times, refusing to disclose his identity, to tell them that Grady B. Barnwell had whiskey in his automobile. Following the informant's directions they said, they stopped Barnwell's automobile in South St. Louis and confiscated nine quarts of whiskey. Barnwell's plea that the case be dismissed on the grounds of illegal search was taken under advisement.

HOOVER WILL NOT PARADE WHILE IN NEW YORK MONDAY

Trip Is to Be Less Strenuous Than Previous Campaign Tours of the Republican Nominee.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The final drive Herbert Hoover is to make into Eastern territory—his visit to New York City next Monday—is to be much less strenuous than the campaign tours he has made during the past month.

Street processions and long automobile touring through crowds, which formed a large part of his activities on his journey to Newark, Elizabeth and Boston, have been eliminated from the program of his trip to the home town of his Democratic opponent, as have rear platform speeches and overnight train rides.

The Republican presidential candidate will leave here Sunday afternoon, arriving in New York in time to have a good night's rest at his hotel, to which he will drive directly from the Pennsylvania Railroad Station. He will be welcomed to the metropolis by Charles D. Hilles, national committeeman for New York, H. Edmund Macphail, State chairman, and other leaders.

To Spend Day at Hotel.

Under present plans all of Monday will be spent at the hotel. Some party leaders will be guests of the candidate at breakfast. Later during the forenoon, Hoover will receive delegations from various foreign groups and probably will make brief talks to them.

The nominee will speak at the hotel luncheon which will be given for State and county chairmen and officers of the various independent Hoover-Curtis committees which have been organized in New York. Several hundred will attend this luncheon and the candidate is expected to advise them to redouble their energies in the fight to capture Gov. Smith's home state for the Republican national ticket.

During the afternoon, the nominee will receive Republican service men who have been promoting his candidacy and later will rest in his suite before dinner and the speech he is to deliver at Madison Square Garden that night. Vice President Charles G. Dawes also is to speak on the same program, which will be carried to the country over a nationwide radio hookup.

A Summing Up Speech.

Hoover will spend Monday night in New York and return to Washington Tuesday afternoon to conduct a "front porch" campaign at his headquarters here during the week intervening before he starts on his last campaign trip, which will take him to his California home, where he will vote.

Since the New York address, which now practically is completed, will be the last in the East, Hoover is expected to make a general summing-up of his position on the various issues which he has talked about and also to deal more fully with some questions which perhaps are closer to the people of New York City than to those elsewhere.

While Hoover planned to spend much of his time today at his home, he had engagements to meet a number of visitors at his headquarters, these including Dr. Hugo Eckener and three of those who accompanied him across the Atlantic in the Graf Zeppelin.

Delegation of Steubens.

A group from the Steuben Society visited the nominee yesterday and told him that since a committee from that organization was reported to have recommended the candidacy of the New York Governor, "We have felt it our duty as members of this society to come here and say to you that we believe that this action in no sense represents the feeling of a vast majority of our members."

"You and your advisers have already been informed of the circumstances attending the origin of this pronouncement," they added. "We have received by telegram, letters and telephone numerous repudiations of and protests against the declaration purporting to appear on behalf of the general membership of the Steuben Society. We know that the members of the Steuben Society are profoundly grateful for the great relief work you did for Germany and Austria and their striving women and children after the signing of the armistice, and we are glad of this opportunity to personally assure you of the deep appreciation of your fellow-citizens of German race and antecedents and trust that you will receive the indorsement of the nation or Nov. 6."

Locomotive Brotherhood and Auxiliary Hold Sessions.

A special meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers is being held at the American Annex Hotel today. The Grand International Auxiliary of the brotherhood is meeting at the Coronado Hotel.

The brotherhood is the oldest labor organization in existence. It was organized in Detroit in 1863 and now has a membership of 85,000. Headquarters are in Cleveland, but a local office, in charge of E. H. Kruse, is maintained here in the Railway Exchange Building.

What Does Shoe 'VALUE' Mean?

It doesn't mean PRICE alone—it is determined by excellence of workmanship and beauty of style—at a definite saving in price. The values we offer are duplicated, of course, in the high-priced class, but never—any day—at our common-sense price—

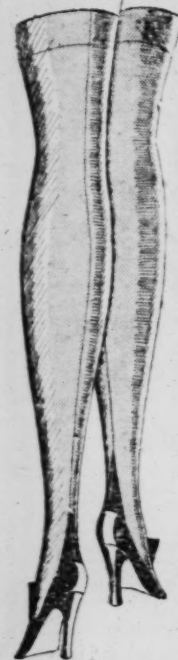

The excellent quality of this comfortable, low-heel Pump marks it as a real value. All sizes and widths. In patent leather and gum-metal calf.

ORDINANCES DRAWN FOR PLAZA PURCHASES

Plan Is for City to Pay $254,145 for Nine Pieces of Property.

Proposed ordinances have been prepared to authorize purchase by the city of nine pieces of improved property in the Memorial Plaza site for a total of $254,145. They were considered by the Citizens' Bond Issue Supervisory Committee yesterday, but no action was taken for lack of a quorum and in order to await expert real estate advice as to the prices.

The pieces of property, present owners and prices are: Northwest corner of Fourteenth and Chestnut, two lots, occupied by a 43-room hotel, Walter E. Mantz, $92,750; 1400-02 Pine, Josephine Garbarino, and northeast corner of Thirtieth and Chestnut, same owner, $84,320; 1404 Chestnut, Maude M. Johnson, $7000; 1309 Chestnut, James F. Gudmoe, $13,500; 1308 Chestnut, Angelo Parato, $10,050; 1404 Pine, Celeste B. England, $25,000; 1317 Market, Angelo Parato, and 1312 Chestnut, same owner, $21,525.

The Supervisory Committee gave tentative approval, subject to similar action by a quorum, to proposed ordinances authorizing expenditure of bond issue funds for paying newly widened sections of Easton and Vandeventer avenues. The projects are:

Vandeventer, between Market street and Washington boulevard $37,530, or 25 per cent of the total cost, the balance in this and other cases to be assessed against abutting property; Vandeventer, between Enright and Easton avenues, $16,960, or 20 per cent of total cost; Easton, Leffingwell avenue to Grand boulevard, $53,000, or 40 per cent of total cost; Easton, between Grand and Prairie avenue, $33,017, or 60 per cent of total cost.

The variation in percentage is due to the fact that the city seeks to equalize the assessment against property owners, the rate of which, because of various factors, will vary in the different localities. Asphalt paving is provided for the Easton avenue projects, and smooth-cut granite for those on Vandeventer avenue, but if the pending application of the Public Service Co. to the Public Service Commission to replace its Vandeventer cars with busses is approved, the paving of that thoroughfare will be changed in the ordinances to asphalt.

Easton avenue has been widened from 60 to 80 feet between Leffingwell and Prairie avenues, connecting wider portions at either extremity. Vandeventer avenue already is broad for two blocks between Washington boulevard and Enright avenue and between Market street and Chouteau avenue. The pending widening will give the two intervening sections 80-foot width.

SALESMAN IS FOUND DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—By the Associated Press. Louis A. Larsen, 50 years old, newly appointed sales representative of a St. Paul shoe company, was found dead in a street here last night. His widow said his employers had advanced him a considerable sum for expenses, and when only 25 cents was found on his body, police began investigation on the theory that he had been murdered and robbed. There were several cuts and bruises about the head.

A SENSATIONAL value—Bartlett Oxford Grays—the finest suits in St. Louis today selling for less than $40. We have them—in every kind of weave and texture—some in plain effects—some in rich herringbone patterns—some in novelty shadow weaves—some with fine silk decorations in harmonious colors.

And, of course, hundreds of other new weaves—including the new Blue-Gray shades in stylish models for young men, and fine worsteds in the popular Banker's Gray shade for more mature men. Every one pure Virgin Wool—every one a brand new weave, direct from the country's leading mills, finely tailored in our own union shops.

Widest variety of models to select from. 1, 2 and 3-button styles in single and double-breasted—in snappy, young men's models and more conservative designs for older men.

And remember—every suit, topcoat or overcoat in our store at our one and only price—the same price for which Bartlett Clothes are sold in our nation-wide chain of stores.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Oct. 13. —Badges of honor for services in obtaining loyalty and respect for the American flag were presented to Mrs. W. R. Painter, Carrollton, Mo., and Mrs. Arthur Schopper of Kansas City, Mo., by Major-General Harry A. Smith, Seventh Corps area commander, at the State convention of the American War Mothers here last night. Addressing the war mothers, Gen. Smith said that he was not in favor of war. Referring to the Kellogg peace pact, Gen. Smith said it would never stop all wars, "but if it stops even one little war it will pay for itself over and over."

ZIPPELIN FLIES OFFICIAL GUESTS AT WASHINGTON

Breakfast With President and Later Pay Visits to Hoover and Several Cabinet Officers.

HUGO ECKENER HEADS THE PARTY

Capt. Lehman Refers to Hoover as "The Savior of Germany" During the Post-War Period.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The official welcome of the National Zeppelin Commission today to Dr.
Hugo Eckener and four of his assistants on the trans-Atlantic flight of the Graf Zeppelin.

As guests of President and Mrs.
Coolidge at breakfast at the White House, they met Secretary Wilbur, Secretary West, Acting Secretary of State J. Reuben Clark and the three assistant secretaries for Commerce, War, Navy, and Agriculture, respectively. Described as "a good old American breakfast," the menu consisted of melon, hot cakes, mastard syrup, eggs and coffee.

Dr. Eckener was accompanied to Washington from Philadelphia by Lieut. Alexander von Brandenstein, Zeppelin, son-in-law of the late Count Zeppelin, staff Captain Ernst Lehmann, Col. Emilio Herrera, the Spanish air force, and Commander Charles E. Rosendahl, United States Navy observer on the Atlantic flight.

Those who met them included
Dr. Otto Kiep, Charge d'Affaires of the German Embassy; Maj. Victoriano Casajus, Military Attache of the Spanish Embassy; and Maj.
Frank N. Kennedy, of the United States air forces, who accompanied Dr. Eckener on the flight of the Zeppelin (then the ZR-3) across the Atlantic four years ago.

After leaving the White House the party visited Herbert Hoover's former headquarters on Massachusetts avenue and there posed for pictures with the Republican presidential nominee. Then they went to the Navy Department where they were the guests of Secretary Wilbur.

Eckener Visits Hoover.
Hoover, in receiving Dr. Eckener, expressed the hope that a regular trans-Atlantic air service could be built up, adding that in every branch of communication there was added solidarity between peoples.

Dr. Eckener told the Republican presidential candidate that this trip was the first of several trial flights he hoped to make. First, to establish confidence in lighter-than-air transportation, and second, to investigate and determine the routes necessary for the most expeditious travel.

Hoover recalled that it required many years for sailing ships of the old days to determine which were the most favorable routes at different seasons and different times and that he presumed that this was one of the necessary determinations to be made for trans-Atlantic development of lighter-than-air transportation. The non-stop communication Dr. Eckener and his crew upon "the fine courage of themselves and companions," and on the fact that Germany should be the first to make this flight, since that country had been the pioneer in lighter-than-air transportation.

He added that the American people welcomed the first flight of what he hoped would be a great commercial development.

Dr. Eckener was further told that in the American people he would find not only an enormous satisfaction at the success of the flight, but he expressed the hope that a regular service could be built up.

Capt. Lehmann, while at the Hoover headquarters, expressed pleasure at meeting the man whom he described as "the savior of Germany" during the post-war period.
"It is a great pleasure to be in the presence of a man who has not been for Herbert Hoover and his efforts for the relief of German thousands and thousands of our people would have starved after the war."

From the Navy Department, Dr.
Eckener and his party were escorted by motorcycle police to the State, War and Navy building where they were greeted by small groups of Government workers with applause and cheers. They met Secretary Davis of the War Department and Assistant Secretary Clark of the State Department briefly, going afterward to the Department of Commerce to pay their respects to Secretary Whiting.

Lady Drummond-Hay, who was passenger on the Graf Zeppelin, came to Washington today to attend general social engagements.
She was not with Dr. Eckener's party here.

After paying their respects to Secretary Whiting, the flyers visited the Lincoln Memorial, and from there went to Arlington Cemetery where Eckener laid a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier.

Returning to Washington, the party went to Bolling Field, where Ernst von Brandenburg, who is the head of civil aeronautics of
the Communications Department of the German Government, and several members of the group went aloft for an aerial sight-seeing tour in an army plane.

Eckener and others in the party went over to the Anacostia naval base and flew over the Capital
in a naval plane.

Sidelights on Smith's Visit to Chicago

By Paul Y. Anderson
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—
At the press conference yesterday, Gov. Smith was informed that Chicago crowds had made bonfires in the streets the night before with copies of the Chicago Tribune because it contained a cartoon unfriendly to the Governor.
He asked to see the cartoon. It portrayed a G. O. P. elephant looking complacently down upon a monster Smith parade, and remarking: "It's lucky for me that eagerness to see Smith doesn't mean eagerness to vote for him."
The candidate looked at it, grinned, and said: "What's wrong with this picture? I asked the question, and I shall answer it—
The look of delight on the elephant's face."

Appalling Candor

THE Governor's appalling candor is a source of constant worry to his political advisors.
Some of them almost swooned when he admitted to the reporters in Louisville that he didn't know enough about the Lake cargo coal case to comment intelligently upon it. It occupied the attention of the last session of Congress for two full days, caused John Esch to be kicked off the Interstate Commerce Commission, and has almost precipitated civil war among several coal states, including Kentucky. Gov. Smith had been warned by one of his associates that morning that he would be asked about it, and it was suggested that he inform himself sufficiently to answer questions. He replied: "What's the use of bluffing? I don't know anything about it, and it is not a thing that I can learn in a few minutes. If they ask me about it I'll tell them the truth—I don't know. If it ever comes before me, I'll study it, make up my mind, and settle it, but in the meantime I don't intend to bluff."

The Governor has some very solicitous friends among the newspaper correspondents aboard the train. Especially among the New York men who have been assigned to Albany for a long time. They constitute a part of what he jocously calls "The Standing Committee on Suggestions." When Hoover in his Boston speech apparently made the mistake of intimating that Smith had advocated a tariff Commission to "have power to make tariff rates, some of these friends were eager to have the Governor snap his opponent up on it, and put him "over the barrel." Smith shook his head. He replied the Lincoln Memorial, and from there went to Arlington Cemetery where Eckener laid a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier.

Returning to Washington, the party went to Bolling Field, where Ernst von Brandenburg, who is
the head of civil aeronautics of
the Communications Department
of the German Government, and
several members of the group
went aloft for an aerial sight-seeing tour in an army plane.

Eckener and others in the party
went over to the Anacostia naval base and flew over the Capital
in a naval plane.

After seeing Washington from the air, members of the party were guests at luncheon of the Asst.
Secretaries for Aeronautics of the Navy, Army and Commerce departments.

Navy to Furnish Bearings.
When the Graf Zeppelin makes the return flight to Germany she will be guided on her course as far as her commander desires by the naval radio compass stations along the Atlantic Coast. Plans have been worked out to give the dirigible bearings by radio until it establishes satisfactory contact with German stations.

ROBINSON CRITICISES CURTIS FOR CHANGING ON FARM BILL

By the Associated Press.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 19.—A tariff that will maintain legitimate business and "high and just standards of wages" but at the same time "strike at monopolies," was promised by Senator Joe T. Robinson last night in the event of a Democratic victory.

He attacked the Republican record on farm relief and particularly Senator Curtis, the Republican presidential nominee, "for voting to pass the McNary-Haugen bill and then casting his vote to sustain President Coolidge's veto." He declared that the Democratic party,
if it gets control of the Government, would "solve the farm problem in six months as contrasted with the eight years which the Republicans have wasted."

Jewish Students Beaten.

By the Associated Press.

BUDAPEST, Oct. 19.—Jewish students at the technical college here were beaten yesterday by Christians. The clash followed distribution by Christian students of leaflets complaining that "there are too many Jews in Hungary."
Several Jewish students were removed to a hospital unconscious after the attack.

Bolshevik Plotters Sentenced.

By the Associated Press.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 19.—The trial at Cluj, Rumania, of laborers accused of bolshevik plotting closed with 33 acquittals and 26 convictions. Sentences ranged from five days to 10 years' imprisonment.

Another Alice Roosevelt

IT is constantly remarked that the child of the Governor who most resembles him is his daughter, Mrs. Emily Warner. She is tremendously interested in the campaign, understands and likes to discuss the issues, and is said to have made suggestions to her father concerning his platform. If he is elected, she will be the Alice Roosevelt of the administration.

Adams on "Solid South"

JOHN T. ADAMS, former chairman of the Republican National Committee, naturally thinks that Hoover will win. But he said yesterday that he takes no stock in the hope of breaking the "Solid South." "I have been in politics too long to expect anything like that," he admitted. "Of course, there is disaffection in the South,
but I do not expect it to change the result—unless the disaffection extends to the gentlemen who count the votes."

James Good Speaking

ON the other hand, James Good, Western manager of the Republican campaign, thinks Hoover will carry Texas. In fact, he said he saw no hope for Democratic victory in any Western state with the possible exception of New Mexico. He foresees a Hoover plurality of 700,000 in Illinois.
Privately, one suspects that he would be well satisfied with 100-000. The local Republican organization is shot to pieces as a result of the venomous primary campaign. There is every reason to suppose that Smith will carry Cook County. But whether he will carry it by enough to overcome the large normal Republican majority down-State is another matter.
That seems possible only in the event of a Smith landslide.

Fireworks Coming

NEWSPAPER men who have followed Smith in his campaign for Governor, says this one is following the previous rule.
That rule is to begin in a leisurely manner, gradually increase the pace, and wind up with a crashing climax just before election.
They predict that the last few days of his campaign, which will be staged in the East, will produce some of the most dramatic and spectacular developments in the history of Presidential politics.

MEXICO MARVELS AT MORROWS

Envoy's Son's Support of Smith Termed a Lesson in Tolerance.

Copyright, 1928, by the Press and Publishing Cos., the New York World and Post-Dispatch.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 19.—Mexican newspapers point to the announced decision of Dwight W.
Morrow Jr., son of the United States Ambassador, to support Gov.
Smith, although his father is a Republican, as a lesson in tolerance which Mexicans are urged to take to heart.

Excelsior makes young Morrow's independence the subject of its leading editorial. Although such difference of opinion between father and son is without exceptional significance in the United States, the newspaper observes, it would be a novelty in Mexico where the trivial episode of the younger Mor-row's stand would be a scandal which would create deep family dissension. "In the United States," continues the editorial, "it is an every day incident which tolerance covers with its mantle of protection. For those among us who are broadminded and know how to re-

clared that the Democratic party,

U. S. SETS WORLD PROSPERITY MARK, COOLIDGE SAYS

In Speech Dedication Virginia Battlefields He Des-cants on Industrial Growth of South.

PRaises UTILITY OF KELLOGG TREATY

It Is "Greatest Barrier Against War Ever Created by the Act of Man," He Declares.

By the Associated Press.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Oct.
19.—American prosperity and standards of living have reached levels "never before experienced by any people in human history," President Coolidge said here today in dedicating the Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania County battlefields.

The President traced this prosperity to the union which the Civil War preserved and saw in today's ceremony a sign that resentment between North and South was being forgotten and "reconciliation is becoming complete." The whole nation, he said, could join in celebrating the battles fought in this vicinity, because, "out of a common experience our common country has been greatly blessed."

"In these advantages, as it has slowly risen from its prostration, the South has more than amply participated," Mr. Coolidge said.
"Since 1900 that progress has been most marked. In the Southern states alone the wealth, the manufactures, the mineral and the farm products, the banking resources and the exports are of about the same value today that they were in the whole United States in 1900."

A United Nation.

"This day, however, is not to mark a local or sectional occasion.
It is to mark a national occasion.
The great questions which were at issue on these battlefields were national questions. Out of the decision to which they were finally brought there has been a common advantage and a common progress which has accrued to the whole nation. Had the decision been otherwise we should have all been robbed of a great part of the pride which we all feel today in our country. Her achievements of the past years have been divested of much of their value and her prospects for the future would have been devoid of much of their hope. Instead of one great country enjoying domestic peace and progress, holding a commanding position in the world, we should have been a region of hostile factions, impotent at home and despised abroad. The service which we did for the cause of humanity in 1865, the world crisis in which we successfully performed our part in 1917, would all have been impossible. Long since our common heritage would have been dissipated, our glory would have departed."

Referring to the country's progress since 1860, President Coolidge said:
"Many different elements have contributed to this development, but they all rest on the fundamental fact that we are a large country furnishing a large market able to consume the output of mass production. This situation has encouraged the introduction of labor-saving machinery."

Figures on Industrial Growth.
Mechanical power in the United States now is equivalent to the work of 3,000,000,000 employees in our industries," he said. In transportation, average freight rates have been halved to one cent a mile since 1860, passenger traffic has been trebled and freight traf-

"HOOVER SONGS" IN LOS ANGELES SCHOOLS A TRICK

Superintendent Says Photographers Got Pictures Through Misrepresentation.

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—Photographers showing Los Angeles school teachers alleged to be spreading political propaganda among their pupils were declared fraudulent in a report to the Board of Education last night by Mrs. Susan B. Dorsey, superintendent of schools.

The pictures of school teachers leading their charges in singing a campaign song for Herbert Hoover, had been brought before school officials by county Democratic leaders who demanded discharge of the teachers.

The photographers representing themselves as from a daily newspaper, according to Mrs. Dorsey's report, took the pictures after obtaining entrance to two classrooms of an elementary school by misrepresentation. Mrs. Dorsey reported previously she had refused them permission to take photographs.

"Using a Hoover song which they themselves had taken to the school," Mrs. Dorsey's report read,
"they (the photographers) posed a number of children with their teachers in such a fashion as to make it appear that the occasion was a regular lesson and that the song was being taught by the teachers in the ordinary classroom work."

while 72,000 miles of improved roads have been built.

The World War showed the soundness of America's financial structure when, abandoning her role of debtor nation, she advanced large sums to foreign countries—besides carrying on her own war activities with no internal economic disruption.

"These are some of the facts which indicate the progress and prosperity of the United States," Mr. Coolidge said. "While there are still some of our people who have not yet become participants to the extent of their merit in our material resources, and some lines which have fallen behind, we have striven to keep the door of opportunity open to all our inhabitants."

influence in negotiating the recent treaty in behalf of peace is well rier against war that was ever created by the act of man. In his capacity as a ranking mem-

NOMINEE URGED 1918 RATE AS MINIMUM

Present Candidate's Letter

By CHARLES G. ROSS, Chief Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The story has again been brought out that Herbert Hoover, as Food Administrator, fixed the price of wheat during the war. This time it takes the form of a published statement by former Gov. H. C.
Stuart of Virginia, the war-time chairman of the National Agricultural Advisory Committee. The assertion has been shown by the Post-Dispatch on several occasions to be a perversion of the facts, and it is not now being put forth by anybody in charge of the Democratic campaign.

The facts are, as the Post-Dispatch showed on last June 17 from the official records, that the price of $2.20 was recommended by a commission of which Hoover was not a member and in whose deliberations he took no part.

Price Fixed by President.

Congress in the food control act of 1917 authorized the President to fix a guaranteed price on wheat of not less than $2 a bushel.
The President appointed a Fair Price Commission, headed by Dr. Harry
A. Garfield, president of Williams College, to advise him, and it was this commission that recommended the $2.20 price. The President accepted the recommendation and put it into effect by proclamation.
It was, therefore, the President, acting under authority of Congress, who fixed the price.

The story now relates to the

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles; that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news; always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

Treatment of Ex-Soldiers.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
EX-SOLDIER'S letter in your Oct. 17 edition charges the Republican party with various forms of abuses against the veterans of the world war. The natural inference to be drawn from his statements is that the party robbed the disabled veterans of money appropriated for the building of hospitals, discriminated against them in Government positions and causes them to be treated with contempt while they are at work in such positions. Such charges are grossly untrue.

While it is true that a Veterans' Bureau director did steal money that were appropriated for the disabled vets, it is not true that the vets lost as a result, since the hospital building program was carried out in full, being scarcely affected by the director's defalcations. The losses accrued to the U. S. Treasury and finally to the taxpayers, but in no case to the vets. The liberal manner in which veterans of the late war have been provided for is well known. One need only to spend a short time at any of the Veterans' Bureau hospitals, and see the work being done there by the members of the bureau, the American Legion, Knights of Columbus, American Legion Auxiliary and other organizations interested in the former fighters' welfare, to understand how utterly unfair "Ex-Soldier" is.

The Civil Service is liberal in its policy toward all employees, and outstandingly so toward the ex-soldier. After four years in Civil Service, in three cities, during which I have been in contact with scores of ex-soldiers in the service, I cannot recall a single case of unfairness toward a former soldier, sailor or marine, but can cite one instance of unusual liberality far beyond the requirements of fairness. The Civil Service Commission and the American Legion will give every careful consideration to any case of unfairness "Ex-Soldier, A. E. F." will bring to their attention. I am sure.

Simmons' Antagonism.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
FOLLOWING Gov. Smith's address at Nashville, Tenn., Senator Furnifold Simmons, the representative of Duke University from North Carolina, bitterly attacked him (Smith) because of his wealth. One wonders if water-power rather than water is the real cause of Simmons' antagonism to Smith. The Duke estate and hydro-electric power are synonymous in North Carolina.

If He Were a Minister.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
I F I were a minister, I would:
Preach the Gospel.
Never talk politics from the pulpit.
Act like a human being when prohibition was mentioned.
Never refer to a man who brews his own beer as a "criminal."
Never shander any candidate for public office (even if said candidate adhered to a faith other than mine).
Never place beer-drinking and murder in the same category, as I would, by now, begin to realize that some laymen consider the latter offense as slightly graver.

Try to lead a life that would set a good example to my fellowman, rather than to have precious souls, under my care, leave my flock on account of my activities in enforcing my pet law.

I N your people's column of last Saturday you published a letter containing numerous traffic suggestions whose author signs himself G. L. C.
May I ask you to reprint these suggestions and let me add to their brilliancy the suggestion that all automobiles be taken off the street and horses and buggies substituted for same, and sign it for me?

J. WALKER.

An Appeal to Germans and Negroes.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
B Y reason of the intensity of the love of our German-born citizens for their fatherland—which he said to their everlasting credit, did not interfere with their loyalty to their adopted country after it entered the world war—it would be unthinkable for them to vote against that incomparable humanitarian, Mr. Hoover. He made no distinction between races or nations in feeding the starving victims.

It would be equally ungrateful for our colored citizens to desert the party of Lincoln to vote the Democratic ticket, whose greatest strength is in the South, the locale of disfranchisement and lynching.

VERITAS.

THE REAL PROHIBITION ISSUE.

The Republican leaders who are trying to convince Republican antiprohibitionists to vote against their convictions on the ground that if elected Gov. Smith can do nothing ought to explain why it is that the Anti-Saloon League, W. C. T. U. and other prohibition organizations are fighting strenuously to defeat Gov. Smith because he has pledged himself to try to get something done to put an end to present intolerable conditions. According to the Republican speakers who are sneering at Gov. Smith's pledge of leadership to find a better solution, these prohibition organizations are wasting a vast amount of breath, time and money to hold the dry vote against Gov. Smith.

Let us reason together. The conditions brought about by Federal prohibition, to say nothing of its violation of constitutional guarantees, have shocked the country. Disobedience to law, disrespect for law, general lawlessness and crime, corruption of officials, have convinced many leading churchmen, statesmen, men and women of light and leading all over the country, and a large percentage of former prohibitionists, that something ought to be done to change conditions.

Mr. Hoover declares he will do nothing. He ignores altogether the existing conditions. He ignores the principles involved in the prohibition experiment. He says he will go on with the experiment, the failure of which is manifest. He will continue the tragic farce of enforcement.

On the other hand, Gov. Smith takes a reasonable view of the situation. He recognizes the principles involved. He recognizes the terrible conditions brought about by the corruption of officials, the scoring of the law by an enormous percentage of the people, nearly all of them formerly law-abiding citizens with a high respect for law. He does not pretend that he himself could change either the eighteenth amendment or the Volstead act, but he pledges presidential leadership, if he is elected, to try to find a better solution, and to recommend to Congress changes which will do away with or greatly mitigate the evils flowing from Federal prohibition. He will try to restore the usurped rights of the states and the individual liberties of citizens.

Which is the better choice—the man who will do nothing to overcome admitted great evils, brought about by a mistaken experiment, or the man who will seek a better experiment, a better solution of the liquor problem than the present one, which has done so much to destroy constitutional guarantees, respect for and obedience to law, to demoralize society and corrupt public officials? Which candidate has the more reasonable attitude?

These are the considerations which should decide the vote of those who are opposed to the present system of arbitrary, tyrannical Federal prohibition and realize its disastrous consequences.

MUSIC IN MEXICO.

When the Louisiana Purchase Fair was held here in 1904 all the great bands played for us, including Sousa's and the Garde Republicaine.

None was more popular than the Mexican National Band, which brought to us the atmosphere of Latin-America as nothing else at the fair did. It has saddened some of us, going down there since the fair, to find that because of revolution for so long the old Mexico which sent us her great band has fallen into decay. There has been no more greswome sight down there than the great National Theater in the City of Mexico, an imposing white marble building which had never been finished after Diaz fell and was moreover listing because set upon a sinking foundation. No tourist has missed the great Tiffany curtain, or the stage big enough for a troop of horse.

It is good to know that cultural Mexico is enjoying a renaissance. The National Theater is being straightened up and completed. A symphony orchestra, led by Carlos Chavez, a composer known far beyond the boundaries of Mexico, is to play on the great stage. In time the play and the opera will be themselves again. Mexico is an artistic country. One critic has said of her architecture that there are more monumental buildings in Mexico than in all the rest of the Western Hemisphere. To have had her lie culturally fallow for almost two decades has been a spiritual loss not to Mexico alone, but to the world.

BIRD REFUGES.

There has been waged before Congress over a period of years a spirited fight for bird refuges. Up to this time it has been sought to buy them with funds collected through a Federal license to hunt migratory birds. Opposition to this from the states, which have their own hunting licenses, has prevented passage of the bill.

It has now been decided to eliminate the license feature and ask the money from Congress. The Norbeck bill, which has passed the Senate and is now before the House, carries the new plan, which has the support of the Izaak Walton League, the Associated Audubon Societies, the American Game Protective Association, the American Wild Flowers and the American Forestry Association. The bill asks for an annual appropriation with which to purchase wild lands suitable for birds, including breeding grounds and wintering areas. It no longer seeks to establish public hunting grounds, as earlier bills did. A committee of 10, which includes the Missouri Game and Fish Commissioner, Mr. Keith McCashe, has been appointed by a national conference on the subject to push the bill.

Some of the finest of the North American birds, like the swan, the snowy egret and the crane, cannot be perpetuated without such a plan as the Norbeck bill proposes, while game birds like the ducks and geese, an immense food and sporting asset to the country, have desperately needed for years the protection of a broad conservation policy. Many of the finest marshes on which these birds breed and enjoy sanctuary have been drained without any balancing profit to anybody. The design of the Norbeck bill is to take these places out of the market and restore them to their former use.

THE LESLIE DANA MEDAL.

When Leslie Dana of St. Louis became a member of the Missouri Blind Commission he saw enough of blindness and its tragedy to interest him in the battle to prevent blindness.

The result was the Leslie Dana Medal, presented here yesterday by the Missouri Association for the Blind to Dr. F. Park Lewis of Buffalo. Dr. Lewis came to St. Louis to attend the annual convention of the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology. The Leslie Dana Medal is annually awarded to the man or woman in the United States who contributes most during the year to the prevention of blindness. This was, in the opinion of his colleagues, the distinction during the last year of Dr. Lewis, now 73 years old, an experimental practitioner, whose discoveries as to blindness, its causes and its prevention, are regarded by American scientists as invaluable.

A great human cause, and one in which St. Louis is proud to have a citizen so helpfully interested as Mr. Dana is.

DR. WORK AND SINCLAIR.

It is a most embarrassing position, embarrassing to him, to his party and to Mr. Hoover, in which Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the Republican National Committee, finds himself with respect to the sale of royalty oil in the Salt Creek field to Harry Sinclair.

The oil scandal is inseparable from the Republican party, and this incident proves it. Mr. Fall made an illegal contract with Sinclair for the Salt Creek oil in 1922. It ran for five years and carried an option for another five years. It was a secret contract, which was not let under competitive bidding as the law requires. In fact, it was introduced in the trial of Fall as a proof of that corruption which drove the Secretary of the Interior out of public life and made him an object of popular condemnation.

The contract expired last February. On the twentieth of that month Dr. Work, then Secretary of the Interior, renewed the contract under the option. He said at the time that he had the opinion of the solicitor in his department that there was no choice in the matter. Nevertheless, protests were made by Senator Capper, Senator Walsh and others. These protests were carried to Mr. Coolidge, and on March 2, 1928, 11 days after renewal of the contract, the President directed the Attorney-General to investigate the transaction.

The Attorney-General now declares the original contract to be invalid. Accordingly, deliveries of oil to the Sinclair company in the Salt Creek field have been stopped by order of the acting Secretary of the Interior. This was an extensive transaction. In the five years during which the contract was operative the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing Co., which is owned jointly by the Sinclair Consolidated and the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, took from the Salt Creek field oil valued at $33,757,300.

Dr. Work makes the same weak defense now that he made when he renewed the contract. That is, he says he acted upon the advice of the solicitor in his department. The press has been unable to secure this document, which was reported in the Interior Department to be lost. The surprising feature of the incident is that after all the malodorous raised by the oil expose, Dr. Work or any other official of the Government would renew a contract made by Fall to Sinclair without exhausting the highest possible advice in the legal department of the Government. To have done so, of course, he would have gone to the Attorney-General of the United States. This is where Mr. Coolidge went, and the Attorney-General has promptly branded the whole contract as a fraud. Dr. Work could have got this same opinion, and in explaining that a subordinate advised him he is no better off than was the unfortunate Secretary Denby. The matter was one in which a blind man could have seen his way. Dr. Work knew that even the United States Supreme Court had denounced the contracts made by Fall as fraudulent. Any such contract, coming up for renewal, was enough to have aroused the Interior Department or any other department of the Government to the utmost defensive tactics. Even the usually slothful Mr. Sargent was quick to pounce upon it when it came his way, but to the unwary and deeply embarrassed Dr. Work the thing went through as glibly as if there had never been an oil scandal.

Dr. Work should resign as chairman of the Republican National Committee. He is the new fall guy of his party, the new and famous Mr. Denby.

NAILING A CAMPAIGN CANARD.

Dr. Hubert Work has effectively disposed of the attempt to question Mr. Hoover's American citizenship. The presence of Mr. Hoover's name on British voters' rolls means only that, as a lessee of a house in England, he paid taxes, and all taxpayers are automatically placed on the voters' list. This, however, did not make Mr. Hoover a British voter and there is nothing whatever to show that he has ever done anything to forfeit his citizenship in the United States. Dr. Work's statement is buttressed by a report of the State Department declaring that "there never has been the slightest question of Mr. Hoover's American citizenship."

The Post-Dispatch regrets the presence in the campaign of the imputation that Mr. Hoover has been a British citizen. Mr. Hoover, however, has suffered less from fables and misunderstandings than Gov. Smith. The latter, in many sections of the country, has been the subject of a campaign reviving in the extreme. Every aspect of his private and official life has been smeared with falsehood. Relatively, Mr. Hoover has fared well.

THE TEXTILE STRIKE ENDS.

Since last April the New England textile industry has been paralyzed by a strike of 27,000 workers, who walked out when the manufacturers suddenly announced a 10 per cent cut in their already meager wages. The men protested against such summary action and insisted that only proper management or manipulation of the books could account for lack of ample profits. An agreement has now been reached by which the men will return to work, six months of unemployment having starved them into submission. They will accept a 5 per cent wage reduction, but the manufacturers have promised that 30 days' notice will be given when any wage changes are proposed in the future.

The behavior of the textile manufacturers has caused a great deal of criticism in New England and inspires this analysis of the strike in the Springfield (Mass.) Republican:

In retrospect, the strike appears like a calamity that was caused by the irritability of the controlling interests. There seems to have been ground for the suspicion that the notice of the 10 per cent wage reduction, so unexpectedly posted, was more or less the reaction of the mill owners to the Legislature's refusal to modify the labor laws of the Commonwealth in the matter of night work for women. The appeal for aid by the Legislature failing, the dominant group in New Bedford resorted to drastic action to reduce costs of production.

In casting most of the responsibility for the strike on the mill owners the Springfield Republican echoes the general sentiment of the New England press.

Coolidge economy, at any rate, has descended from a matter of dogma to a matter for argument.

UP SALT CREEK IN AN OIL BARGE.

A New and Astonishing Industry

It reaches out into every part of the land, its product is displayed in thousands of show windows, but there are no prideful references to it in Mr. Hoover's speeches and the hired artists of hot air ignore it in their talks to rural voters.

From the Webster (S. D.) Journal.

SINCE Herbert Hoover became a Cabinet officer of the Government, there has grown up in this country a vast industry which is reaching out into every State, every county and every township in the land, the product is a household word and in daily use. This sudden and astonishing business is only another evidence of Eastern industrial prosperity for which the Republican party is responsible, but we see no prideful reference to it in Mr. Hoover's speeches; we see no word of boasting, concerning it, in any of the Hooverized newspapers and the hired artists of hot air who are wind-jamming throughout the rural districts, avoid the subject with painstaking care.

President Coolidge is well aware of it. Mellon knows it, Hoover sees its product daily and these three souls with but a single thought, continue to ignore its existence. This growing industry employs thousands and tens of thousands of men in its factories. It is the child of the Grand Old Party, fostered with paternal care, protected by official kindness and grown great by party patronage.

By day and by night mighty factories belch forth clouds of smoke, but no word of it, no syllable, no letter concerning it is ever mentioned by those responsible for its being. As we walk down the streets of this city, or the streets of any American city, we see the product, proudly displayed in windows, which heretofore were embellished by silk stockings, fruits and furniture, coffee and codfish, canned goods and catnip, garden hose and globes. We see the product in department stores, in groceries, butcher shops, chain stores and hardware emporiums.

We hear much about Coolidge prosperity "over yon," we hear of the "full dinner pail" beyond the Alleghenies; we hear agonizing yelps about the "sacredness of the home," and of "the great moral issue" which calls for patriot's time and money; but of this "Home Delight" we hear not even a whisper.

The business to which we refer is the manufacturing of "Malt Extract," made under the beneficent reign of the Anti-Saloon League and the auspices of the Coolidge administration, and where, in this land of the free and the home of the brave, every home may become a brewery and every basement a private bar.

One Malt Extract factory turns out 50,000,000 pint bottles of the stuff. The entire output, according to a careful investigation, is 438,000,000 pounds, and this will make and does make 6,500,000,000 pint bottles of home brew!

As a side line to Malt Extract we note that Mr. Kresge, the big chain store king, sells crown caps, bottle stoppers, rubber hose and the other paraphernalia necessary to take care of this flood of home-made beer. We also notice he recently contributed a half million dollars to the campaign fund for prohibition and the election of Mr. Hoover. Mr. Kresge is like a lot of "home and fireside" uplifters we know. He doesn't believe in letting his dry left hand know what his wet right hand is doing.

Wilson and Smith

From the Memphis Commercial Appeal.

DESPITE the fact that the late President Woodrow Wilson's veto of the Volstead act was a stronger move against that enactment than anything suggested by Gov. Alfred E. Smith, there are some Republican propagandists who are trying to delude Wilsonian Democrats with the wholly groundless assumption that if Wilson were alive he would be opposed to the Democratic nominee. This is not only slanderous of the dead, but also a complete and unmitigated perversion.

How Woodrow Wilson regarded Alfred E. Smith even before he was elected Governor of New York for the first time, and before he had established his wonderful executive direction of legislative achievement was told recently by Franklin D. Roosevelt in a speech at Atlanta. Mr. Roosevelt was speaking of the war days of 1918 when he was an Assistant Secretary of the Navy and was then under orders to go to Europe on official business with the American war fleet there.

Al Smith at that time had been merely a Legislator, Sheriff of New York County and president of the Board of Aldermen. But his career had attracted the attention of President Wilson. So when the Democrats of New York State wanted Franklin Roosevelt to run for Governor in 1918 he was forced to decline. Mr. Roosevelt went to President Wilson, who was intensely interested in the campaign of 1918, and suggested the name of Alfred E. Smith. And, according to Mr. Roosevelt, this is what the President said:

I should be entirely satisfied with Smith's nomination. He seems to be a man who has responded in an extraordinary manner to the awakening forces of a new day and the compulsion of changing circumstances. He seems to have noteworthy support from organizations and individuals who are working in one way or another for the improvement of government.

Mr. Roosevelt said in the same speech that he mentioned to the President, the fact that Alfred Smith was a Catholic and that the President replied:

The day to take political consideration of that has gone by. People are every day reading the casualty lists of American boys of every creed.

HURRAH FOR SCIENCE!

Early to bed and early to rise
Makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise.

We always doubted it. If you go to bed early, you cannot sleep; if you get up early, you never know any of the neighbors. Go to bed late and get up when you please.
Better, far better, are thoughts such as these.

Or,
Go to bed late, get up when you may.
Hang all the proverbs that is my way.

Instinctively we like to sleep late. And psychologists tell us the best thing to do with instincts is to follow them, short of course, of compelling the police to horn on the party. Now science says if we get up early, we are liable to heart disease. The admonition was not couched in exactly those words but if you bound out of bed in the morning, the cook will one day spare the trouble of boiling your eggs. And no late riser bounds out of bed; he waits until he is wakened. Then he braces about it. Well, he's inviting heart disease. Now, if science will show the fallacy in a few more proverbs, we shall continue to sleep late in the morning.

The trouble with the heavyweight situation at present is that so many of the local contenders really are logical contenders.

When irritated, a man seldom judges correctly, so the chances are that some of those popular songs have not been played as long as you think they have.

Another form of unconscious error is that you never see a "No Parking" sign on a detour.

Sometimes we begin to wonder just how large a crowd a convention of sign painters would draw.

Our present belief is that if the birds were made high enough, assuming that it were possible, it might cure itself as well as everything else.

If the new golf club improves his play, we do not see why the new lamp should not improve the appearance of his room.

Imaginary Conversations

Passenger: Why stop at this particular spot?
Driver: For the view between those two billboards.

We are nothing if not foresighted, and what will they do with the posters when all the telephone wires are underground?

When any one tells us how Mr. Hoover stands on an issue we always are a little puzzled as to how our informant found out. Considerable progress has been made since the time when Socrates said, "Know thyself" and we see where "Young Theodore Roosevelt" says that the Democratic platform is, of all things, funny.

And as for those who are looking for the so-called silent voter, the voting will not be done until Nov. 6.

JOHN G. NEIHARDT

Truly Odyssean

JOHN CAMERON'S ODYSSEY. Translated by Andrew Farrell.

"H. THE glory of travel is not so much in what one sees and experiences as in the tales he can tell when he returns home, and his family listens with pride, and neighbors enter to greet the wanderer, and children stand about open-mouthed." Thus wrote John Cameron in his latter days when he could go no more a-roving on the seven seas and when, nonetheless, he had become something of a bore to those of the new generation who had sprung up about him as by magic.

Perhaps it was because the children no longer "stood open-mouthed" when he was in a reminiscent mood that he hit upon the happy idea of putting it all in a book that, perchance, it might not utterly do with him. And what a book it is!

John Cameron, who died three years ago in Japan, was a Scotchman who was a "good old days" man in many a tall ship still spread her canvas to the trades or the "brave west winds." In 1867, at the age of 17, he made his first voyage to British Guiana—and for 18 years thereafter his life was spent on salt water. Only once—when he tells us with pride—and that but a year or two, was he guilty of forsaking sails for steam.

"Time was, time was," observes the hard-bitten old fellow; "but once he gets into the line of his brave narrative, there is no more sighing over the past, for the past comes back again, like a great wind out of an unspoiled world, and everything is young once more with something of the fabled youth of the gods."

There is scarcely a port in the wide world that was not visited more than once by this canny, daring, hawking, double-listed Scot, and he has put in at many a lonely island off the track of ships. Several times he experienced shipwreck. Once he drifted for weeks in an open boat, and once for months he waited half-starved on a little South Sea island watching for a sail. For some time he was engaged in the blackbirding business in Polynesia, and he has no apologies to offer for the fact. Indeed, it is to be feared that old John Cameron was hardly a pious man, and his narrative abounds in billiard-room episodes. Recounted with a frank pagan joy, his companions were a motley crew—drunken traders, missionaries, Spanish dons, cannibals, rogues, murderers, brown kings and chiefs, and men of the genuine, timeless, Hamletic breed, of which latter he was not the least.

The book is admirably named, for John Cameron's life was truly Odyssean. Incidentally, Andrew Farrell was the right man for the task of setting down the old man's memories, and he has done an excellent job of writing.

No one who is at all fond of adventure should overlook this volume.

THE AMERICAN OMEN, by Garrett Garrett, (Dutton.) Here is yet another hymn of praise to swell the ecstatic chorus of American prosperity. Mr. Garrett, who is said to know his stuff, explains our industrial progress very carefully, showing why it is the prime duty of every true American patriot to buy and consume as much as he, she or it possibly can in the interest of greater and greater production. If production does not increase steadily, we are warned, prices will rise, consumption will fall off and hard times ensue. Nevertheless, and in the same breath, production must be held down in keeping with our prowess as consumers. There seems nothing for it but to invent consuming machinery, for it is well known that a machine can do more than many men. Why stick to the slow, old-fashioned method of consuming "by hand" in this age of bigger and better things? It may be objected that this is a silly suggestion; but is not silliness something implicit in the matter? Toward the end of the volume a distinct note of something very like religious fervor creeps into the text. At any rate, it may be said that Mr. Garrett grows lyrical over the prospect for greater and greater consumption, greater and greater production, right up to the millennial dawn. Will somebody please page the last war and what will cause the next one?

One of the striking facts about the publishing industry is that thick books are very much in evidence on the market. We are a great people for quantity, and a thick book at a thick price is said to be more profitable than a thin book at a price sufficiently thick to justify printing. May we not venture to foresee the time when literary criticism shall have become strictly scientific at last? May not a standard critical article of the future run somewhat as follows?

THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE Rev. Dr. Francis Pieper, president of Concordia Seminary, as a professor of that institution, will be celebrated by a service in the seminary chapel at 5 o'clock this afternoon, to be followed by a testimonial dinner at the Roosevelt Hotel.

In the chapel service, the Rev. Dr. F. P. Pienhauer, president of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states, will speak, and a student chorus will sing. At the dinner, speakers will be the Rev. Dr. William Ballman, vice president of the synod; the Rev. Dr. F. Brand, director of Foreign Missions, and Prof. C. F. Brummer of Lutheran Normal College at Seward, Neb.

A number of ministers from various parts of the country, former pupils of Dr. Pieper, will attend the jubilee observance. Dr. Pieper has three sons in the ministry and four daughters who are the wives of ministers. One of the daughters has come from New York and one son, the Rev. Theo. Pieper, came from San Francisco.

Dr. Pieper is a graduate of Concordia Seminary, in the class of 1875. He did pastoral work in Wisconsin for three years, and in 1878 returned to the seminary as professor of dogmatics. In 1887 he was elected president, in which position he has continued. He is 71 years old, and was president of the Synod from 1899 to 1911, a period of great expansion in the Lutheran body.

The so-called Missouri Synod, the largest of the Lutheran synods, has congregations in every state, in Canada, Brazil and Argentina, and carries on extensive mission work in China, India and among the Negroes in the South.

Under his administration the seminary built and occupied its building at Jefferson Avenue and Miami Street, where it remained until 1926, and the present group of buildings in St. Louis County, west of Forest Park.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

THE last of this week's debut teas will be given this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, to introduce Miss Marjorie Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Green, 5544 Clemons Avenue, at the Green home, Chrysantheum will be used to decorate the lower-floor rooms of the house, with yellows and browns predominating.

Mrs. Green and her daughter will receive their guests in the east room, against a background of the blossoms. Miss Green will wear white chiffon, with a sleeveless surplice bodice and full skirt with a long back. The gown depends for its trimming upon a lovely wide girde of pearls and rhinestones. She will carry roses shading from yellow to peach, combined with lilacs of the valley and blue delphinium. Mrs. Green will be gowned in green chiffon with a shoulder corsage of orchids.

The tea table will be decorated in chrysanthemums lighted with yellow tapers. The debutantes serving will include Miss Dorothy Drew, Miss Louise Rexford, Miss Isabelle Kirkpatrick, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, Miss Harriet Moreno, Miss Jane Tyler Messick, Miss Janet Lawton, Miss Betty Niles, Miss Elizabeth Fusz, Miss Mary Scudder Hallett, Miss Lucy Thompson, Miss Gladys Muckerman, Miss Marion Bischoff, Miss Isabelle Bond, Miss Alice Chapman, Miss Margaret Row, Miss Josephine Scullin and Miss Anne Sipple.

The matrons assisting the hostesses will be Mrs. Albert M. Keller, Mrs. Samuel P. McChesney, Mrs. Ashley Gray, Mrs. Chauncey Clarke, Mrs. Irvine Wilkerson, Mrs. John C. Morfit, Mrs. Clark Johnston, Mrs. Frederick L. English, Mrs. A. Sidney Johnston, Mrs. Arthur Wayne Green, an aunt of the debutante, and her grandmother, Mrs. James Francis Green.

Miss Green is a graduate of Mary Institute and attended Smith College for two years. She served as a maid of honor at the Velled Prophet ball.

Invitations were received yesterday for the debut dinner dance to introduce Miss Ellen Bates, niece of Mr. and Mrs. William Maffitt, 4315 Westminster place, at the St. Louis Country Club, Friday, Nov. 9. The cards were sent in the name of Miss Bates' sister, Miss Josephine Bates, because of mourning in the Maffitt family.

Miss Alice Chapman, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin

G. Chapman Jr., 58 Kingsbury place, will be the guest of honor at two dinner and theater parties in November. The first will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Firmin V. Desloge of the Clayton road Monday, Nov. 5, and the second Nov. 26 by Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Jones, 4638 Pershing Avenue, Monday, Nov. 26. The dinner parties will be given at the homes of the hosts and hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Medart have returned from their honeymoon at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago, and are making their home temporarily with Mr. Medart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Medart, 103 Aberdeen place. Mrs. Medart was Miss Blossom Breneman.

Mr. and Mrs. Eberhard Anheuser of "Golfhurst" St. Louis County, have gone to Hot Springs, Va., to join a group of Chicago friends who are spending the autumn season there. Mr. and Mrs. Anheuser will return home in November.

Announcement has been made of the young women serving at the debut tea to present to society Miss Isabelle Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kirkpatrick, 6301 Washington boulevard, Oct. 24 at the St. Louis Woman's Club. They are Miss Almira Steedman, Miss Jane Messick, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, Miss Elizabeth Gemp, Miss Marie Wilson, Miss Marion Bischoff, Miss Elizabeth Fusz, Miss Harriet Moreno, Miss Betty Niles, Miss Louise Rumsey, Miss Marjorie Green, and Miss Mary Dulany Schottfield, a sub-debutante.

DENIES NEW STORY OF HOOVER'S FIXING '19 WHEAT PRICE

1919 crop. It is being said, on the authority of former Gov. Stuart, that while the 1918 price was determined by a special commission, Hoover was responsible for holding the 1919 price down to the 1918 level. To an extent this is true, but it does not give the whole picture.

Documents released yesterday by Republican headquarters with the approval of Hoover put the matter in a different light, from that in which it has been presented in published reports based on Stuart's statement.

How 1919 Price Was Made. When the Advisory Committee, of which Stuart was chairman, met in August, 1918, to consider the price of the 1919 crop, Hoover was absent in Europe. He sent a cablegram asking that the matter be deferred until his return. What followed is thus told in the official Republican statement replying to Stuart:

"Upon Mr. Hoover's arrival he, in the interest of the farmer, proposed that the 1918 guarantee should be maintained for the 1919 crop, but that a Commission should be created to report in the spring of 1919 the additional price which should be given to the farmer for the 1919 crop and that the minimum should then be readjusted upward on that footing. In spite of opposition from many quarters, he secured its adoption and it was the only guarantee given by the Government for any 1919 product."

"Mr. Hoover's term of office expired before the 1919 crop was harvested, and the matter of appointing the Commission was in the hands of the President and the Cabinet, who decided that the world price level of wheat was so favorable at that time as not to require any further advance in the minimum price. As a matter of fact, the crop harvested in 1919 averaged $2.72 a bushel for No. 1 Northern, or an average of 76 cents higher than even Gov. Stuart and his Commission recommended."

Action Indorsed by Stuart. "Six months after this incident mentioned by Gov. Stuart, the Governor himself put his signature to a statement extolling Mr. Hoover's support to the farmer. Gov. Stuart should in all justice, now that he is apprised of all the facts, withdraw his statement."

Hoover's views were set forth in a letter which he wrote to the President Aug. 26, 1918, after the Stuart Committee had recommended a 20-cent increase over the 1918 minimum price.

"I would suggest that the guarantee be given upon the present price basis, with the additional assurance from you that if the results of the above inquiry warrant, it will be increased. "I have the feeling that with the above assurances of a preliminary guarantee, and the possibility of an entirely fair readjustment of prices upward, our farmers will feel warranted in continuing their fine endeavor to meet the demand."

The plan recommended by Hoover was adopted by President Wilson, who issued a statement retaining the $2.20 minimum guaranteed price—or, as it then was, $2.20 plus the increase in freight rates, which made the price $1.76 at Chicago.

It is pertinent to note that before Hoover wrote his recommendation to the President, the latter had received a memorandum from David F. Houston, who was then Secretary of Agriculture, strongly advising against an increase in the guaranteed price.

Views Expressed by Houston. Houston set out a long list of considerations in support of his opinion. Among other things he said:

"The price of wheat in Australia is about 95 cents per bushel and in Argentina from $1.05 to $1.45 per bushel. The Canadian price has been fixed at $2.21 per bushel. A change in the guaranteed price would probably have a serious effect in inducing the hoarding of the 1918 crop and on its orderly marketing."

"It would probably compel reconsideration of the price in Canada."

"It would disarrange labor and wage schedules which have been adjusted after great difficulty."

"An increased burden would be placed upon the nation and the allies in financing the war and upon all customers—would set up a vicious circle of prices and an advance in all things without any real advantage to anybody."

DR. L. F. HAEBERLE DIES;
IN MINISTRY 67 YEARS

He Long Was Head of Eden Seminary—Became Pastor in St. Louis in 1862.

The Rev. Dr. Louis F. Haerberle, who was president of Eden Theological Seminary for 25 years, died yesterday of pneumonia at his home, 3852 De Tonty street, after an illness of two weeks. He was 90 years old and had done ministerial work in Evangelical churches and schools for 67 years.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at St. John's Evangelical Church, Grand boulevard and Lee avenue, where Dr. Haerberle was pastor for 17 years as a young man. Burial will be in St. John's Cemetery.

Born in Wuertemberg, Germany, Dr. Haerberle came to the United States when 14 years old with his sister and her husband. He studied for the ministry at Eden Seminary, then at Marthasville, Mo. His first pulpit was at Burksville, Ill.

St. Louis Pastor in 1862. He returned to St. Louis as pastor of St. John's Church, then at Fourteenth and Madison streets, in 1862, and remained there until 1879, when he became president of the seminary. During his incumbency, the seminary outgrew its quarters at Marthasville and was removed to a new and larger building on St. Charles road at Hunt avenue. These quarters also were outgrown and the seminary, five years ago, was moved to more modern buildings in Webster Groves.

Dr. Haerberle retired from the presidency in 1904 to devote the rest of his life to general work for the Evangelical Synod. He substituted in various pulpits and was available as a speaker on special occasions. He established the Emmaus Epileptic Asylum in the old seminary building at Marthasville, and later a branch for women at St. Charles. He was known as the "grand old man of the Synod."

Three Anniversary Sermons. Dr. Haerberle had preached three 25-year anniversary sermons at St. John's Church, the last on Oct. 22, 1927, when the church was 75 years old. He corresponded extensively with former students and last May, when he was 90 years old, he received letters, telegrams and tokens from all over the country.

Since the death, in 1909, of his wife, who was Miss Flora Bock of Waterloo, Ill., Dr. Haerberle lived with a daughter, Mrs. Theodore L. Mueller. Another daughter, Mrs. E. T. Bettex of Idalia, Colo., and two sons, Dr. Frederick S. Haerberle, 3206 Herbert street, and Armin T. Haerberle, consul-general at Dresden, Germany, also survive.

Pipe Containing Powder Found.
Louis Schollmeyer, manager of the Union Quarry Co., Marcus avenue and Natural Bridge road, yesterday turned over to police a piece of gas pipe seven inches long containing a quantity of black powder and a fuse, which was found in the quarry. Police believe the "bomb" was thrown in the quarry to test it and failed to explode.

Patrick Duffy Found by St. Louis Driver and Taken to Hospital.

Patrick Duffy, 56 years old, 511 Walnut street, who was taken to City Hospital at noon yesterday suffering from a fractured left leg and probable skull fracture, told of being struck by an automobile on a road near Collinsville, Ill., Wednesday night and left at the roadside for nearly 12 hours. His condition is serious.

Duffy was found yesterday morning by Albert Clayton, 3817 Reber place, who was attracted by his moans while driving along the road a mile west of Collinsville. Clayton took Duffy to the hospital. Duffy told police he was struck by a machine about 10 o'clock Wednesday night, the driver failing to stop in answer to his cries.

Three men, who were injured in an automobile collision in East St. Louis near the Municipal Bridge at 11 o'clock last night, were taken to city hospital. They are Harbard Barman, 1317A Cleveland avenue, East St. Louis, fractured skull; Paul Barman, brother of Harbard, 4402 Page boulevard, cut and bruised.

John McCluney, 5 years old, 6041 Kingsbury avenue, suffered a fractured skull at 4 p. m. yesterday, when he was knocked off his bicycle by a machine driven by Miss Frances Wells, 4055 West Pine boulevard, at Delmar boulevard and Hamilton avenue.

Jean Garther, 5, 2527 North Twentieth street, suffered a fractured skull yesterday afternoon when she was struck by a machine driven by Joseph Horkitz, 726 Interdrive, University City, as she ran into the street to recover a top at Twentieth and Montgomery streets.

Miss Valeria Kerkeler, 4946A Cote Brillante avenue, suffered a fractured right leg when she was struck by a machine driven by William Coby, a Negro, 4329A Cook avenue, at Kingshighway and Cote Brillante avenue.

GOV. McMULLEN TO SPEAK IN SUPPORT OF HOOVER

Nebraska Executive, a McNary-Haugenite, Says Nominée Can Work Out Farm Relief.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 18.—Gov. McMullen announced yesterday he had accepted an invitation from the National Republican headquarters to deliver several campaign speeches in the Middle West prior to the general election.

Although his itinerary has not been worked out, the Governor said he probably would speak in Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri and the Dakotas. He declared he would reaffirm his stand for agricultural relief legislation in the speeches.

"I shall declare my support of a surplus control bill of some kind," Gov. McMullen said. "I will say that I believe farm relief legislation will more likely be secured under Mr. Hoover than anyone else. He has announced that he considers agricultural relief the paramount problem before the country and I believe he can work out some kind of acceptable relief legislation."

JURY FAILS TO AGREE ON BRIBE CHARGE AGAINST TAX AGENTS

Federal Body Discharged After Hearing Case of Attempted Extortion From Sinclair.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The Federal jury which heard the Government's charge that Edward F. Brown and Elmer F. Andrews, Internal Revenue agents, attempted to extort a $25,000 bribe to permit a deduction from the income tax of Harry F. Sinclair, oil magnate, was discharged today when it was unable to agree on a verdict.

The case was given to the jury yesterday afternoon.

DO YOU OWN DOWNTOWN REAL ESTATE UPON WHICH THE RETURN IS NOT SATISFACTORY

My client, a man of wealth—owns, entirely free of all indebtedness, two pieces of clean, west end property. Net income 10%, value $145,000.00. These properties have many tenants and to satisfactorily manage same, requires his attention. He is too occupied with his business to permit this extra burden on his time, and has asked me to find either an individual or estate who has a property, which has a future, but which because of long lease or other condition, makes the present income insufficient for present needs.

He will consider values up to $500,000.00 paying cash plus his two parcels. Net return may be as low as 2%, providing property has future, BUT he's offering good value and will consider only good value in return.

Reply only by letter giving a detailed statement of your property.

PASTOR OF LONDON CITY TEMPLE SPEAKS

The Rev. Dr. Frederick W. Norwood Thinks Kellogg Pact Will Endure.

The Rev. Dr. Frederick W. Norwood of London City Temple, who resembles Senator Borah physically and facially, gave a St. Louis ministerial luncheon group, at Bishop Tuttle Memorial yesterday, his view on "The Struggle for World Peace." The luncheon was arranged by the Church Federation. "The Kellogg pact can't endure along with the race for armament," he said. "One or the other must prevail, and I believe public opinion is shifting toward the pact. I don't believe the nations could see another war through. They have learned that victory is almost as disastrous as defeat."

The struggle for peace, Dr. Norwood declared, is a struggle for disarmament. Without disarmament, "peace can never be established, though some one nation, holding superiority, may be able to keep its neighbors from attacking it for a time."

Desire but Dread to Disarm. "The nations both desire and dread to disarm," he said. "They desire it because they know the horrors and losses of war; they dread it, because they know the value of armament, not only for actual use, but for diplomatic trading. A nation isn't considered a power unless it has large armament, as witness the case of Japan, which is called a power, and China, which is not."

"You are troubled about the Anglo-French understanding," he continued. "So are we in England. It has been condemned by most of the press of England. France wanted certain advantages relative to her army, and negotiated with England, who wanted certain advantages relative to her navy. You were left out for the time, but I am sure you would be consulted before long. It all shows fear—not of invasion necessarily, but of inability to force the nation's will in a diplomatic crisis."

Dr. Norwood reviewed the peace movements of the 19 years since the armistice. He recalled that the Allies, in disarming Germany by the treaty terms, said they did it not only to render Germany unable to renew hostilities, but as the first step toward general reduction and elimination of armaments, which it was to be the duty of the League of Nations to promote.

He held that some progress was made through the Washington naval agreement, and through the Locarno pact between France and Germany. Other efforts have been less successful. He told of the Russian suggestion for general land and naval disarmament within four years, and of the resultant ridicule, and said, "Was Russia sincere? I don't know. How sincere has any nation been in this matter?"

Peace Hope in Paris Pact. "No international friendship or brotherhood can survive a race for armaments. If American and England should go to war—which God forbid, but the militarists never think God does forbid—and if you outclassed us in weight of ships and range of guns, you would have our island at your mercy. You have to think like that, while the existing system continues."

"The problem has always been approached on the basis of economy and strategy. It seems impossible to find a common ground. Equality of ships cannot make nations equal, because the strategic needs differ. It is not possible to find a basis of equality by bargaining."

"I wish that one nation, somewhere, would put its trust in law, not in might. I am not sure it will be your nation, with its varied population. But I hope the Paris pact may mark the beginning of a new era. I know the heart of the British people, in every city and county of the realm, and I know they cherish the hope of a good understanding with America. The old system is going, because men can't keep on believing in it."

RIDING DONKEY TO ALBANY

Veteran, 78, Carrying Messages From Washington to Smith. NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—A 78-year-old veteran, who is riding a donkey from Washington to Albany, N. Y., called at Democratic national headquarters yesterday on his 400-mile jaunt. He is carrying messages from the Smith-Robinson Veterans' Club at Washington to Gov. Smith at the State capital. The veteran is Billy Patterson, whose army service began 20 years ago. Gen. Henry T. Allen, chairman of the National Democratic Veterans' organization, and Senator Tydings of Maryland received him at headquarters, posed with him for photographs and sent him

SEVEN PERSONS KILLED IN COLLAPSE OF BUILDING

VINCENNES, France, Oct. 19.—With seven persons dead and 12 others buried today in the debris of a building which collapsed, samples of the concrete used in the structure have been sent to Paris for analysis by the municipal laboratory.

The structure was a seven-story apartment building mostly made of concrete and partially occupied. Antoine Provini, a contractor who was erecting the building for himself, was prevented from committing suicide by the police. Firemen and soldiers worked all night trying to reach a dozen persons entombed in the ruins, but today had little hope that anyone would be brought out alive.

BORAH CHARGES ROBINSON HAS REVERSED SELF

Declares He Has Changed Position on Power Trust, Prohibition and the Tariff.

By the Associated Press.
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Senator William E. Borah in a speech at the Chattanooga Memorial Auditorium last night charged Senator Robinson with having taken opposite positions in his congressional career on water power, prohibition and the tariff to the standards of his party's standard bearer, Gov. Smith.

"One thing is absolutely certain," Senator Borah declared, "that he (Robinson) has either completely reversed himself upon every important question in this campaign or that he is in open opposition to things he is really talking."

The Idaho Senator said that the Democratic vice presidential nominee had "voted for the defeat of the Walsh power trust investigation resolution" in the last Congress, while Borah was paired in favor of it. Gov. Smith in his Denver and Nashville speeches denounced the "power trust," he added, and had advocated public ownership of electrical power.

Opposed Protective Tariff.

Senator Robinson also opposed the protective tariff system, the Idahoan continued, and in the passage of the 1921 emergency tariff bill voted against "placing duties upon farm products and was opposed to giving the farmers any protection whatever."

Gov. Smith, Borah declared, "in his Louisville speech denounced those who he said had failed to extend protection to the American farmer under the protective tariff system."

"Gov. Smith is for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment," Senator Borah said, "and for public ownership of the liquor traffic—the manufacture and sale of liquor by the states. I ask Senator Robinson to tell the country whether he is in favor of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the public manufacture, sale and transportation of intoxicating liquor by the states."

"I ask him to tell the country, if he is elected Vice President, will he use the influence of his position and his influence as a leader in his party to assist Gov. Smith in bringing about the repeal of the eighteenth amendment and his plan of public ownership, or will he oppose it."

Tammany Makes Borah "Regular"

"In other words, what is the present position of the second candidate on the Democratic ticket with reference to the investigation of the 'power trust,' with reference to the public ownership of power plants; with reference to free trade for the farmer; with reference to the repeal of the eighteenth amendment; with reference to public ownership and control of the liquor traffic?"

"I do not profess to regularity," Senator Borah said at the outset of his speech in answering charges by local Democratic organizations.

"But I am regular at this time because of the presence of Tammany Hall in this campaign," he added.

In an attack on Senator Robinson's opposition to the Power in investigation, Senator Borah's mention of the name of Senator Thomas Walsh of Montana brought applause from the audience.

Following his reply to the Democratic vice presidential nominee, the Senator replied to a number of questions submitted by the Hamilton County Democratic Campaign Committee.

He declared that a query "Why is Hoover wet in the East and dry in the South?" was a "falshood." "Wherever the American flag flies in this land," he added, "Hoover will stand to the last against the repeal of the prohibition amendment and will do his utmost to enforce the law."

A Referendum on Liquor.

Senator Borah assailed Tammany Hall and Gov. Smith's affiliation with the organization. The Idahoan declared that Tammany Hall had "debauched New York with its rule of that city."

"To move Tammany Hall from New York to Washington," he added, "would be a national disaster."

He said that Hoover knew there were "evils in the enforcement," but "everyone knows most of them are in New York."

The Senator declared that liquor control by states had not proven successful. He cited his own State of Idaho which was dry before national prohibition, but "was fostered by its neighboring wet states."

The Senator also said that the Canadian system of liquor control "had not led to sobriety and temperance."

"The sixth of November will record the view of the American people," he concluded, "in a referendum on the liquor issue in the presidential contest. If Hoover is defeated, the control of the traffic will be set back a century."

MARSHALL PETERSON'S NAME
TO GO ON BALLOT FOR SHERIFF

County Election Board Accepts Independent Candidacy of Former Webster Mayor.

The St. Louis County Election Board decided today that the independent candidacy of Marshall B. Peterson, former Mayor of Webster Groves, for Sheriff, would be accepted, by according his one-man ticket a place on the blanket ballot for the election of Nov. 6.

His column will be headed "Marshall B. Peterson Ticket" and there will be blanks for all the other offices for which there are nominees on other tickets, but Peterson's name will be repeated in the line of nominees for Sheriff. His independent candidacy was sponsored by a petition signed by somewhat more than 700 voters, slightly more than the minimum required, and the signatures were approved as valid by the board.

A. E. L. Gardner, attorney for Al Lill, Republican nominee for Sheriff, appeared before the board to argue against accepting Peterson's ticket. Peterson was defeated for the Republican nomination, which Arthur W. Schmid won, but Schmid resigned and Lill was appointed in his place.

FRANKLIN MILLER
OF INDEPENDENTS

Democratic Candidate
Urges That Partisanship Be Laid Aside in Selecting a Circuit Attorney.

Partisanship should be laid aside in the election of the Circuit Attorney because of the necessity for a more vigorous enforcement of the laws in St. Louis, Franklin Miller, Democratic candidate for the office, declared in a speech last night at the Hamilton Hotel.

"I am assured the unified support of the Democratic party," he said, "but there are issues in this campaign that demand that partisanship be laid aside. Not only the unified support of the Democratic party, but the wholehearted support of independent voters is necessary to make this city a safe place in which to live."

Referring indirectly to a defense made by Circuit Attorney Sidener, his Republican opponent, in prosecutions where the disposition provoked public criticism, Miller said: "An honest and efficient Circuit Attorney will not hide behind the plea that he was not present when a case was decided, if the disposition of that case brings criticism upon him. Neither can he logically blame the action upon his subordinate or upon his own ignorance of the case. To do either is to confess his utter inefficiency."

"Assistant Circuit Attorneys must be chosen with utmost care because the Circuit Attorney is directly responsible for their acts. To that principle I pledge my own appointments if I am elected."

Miller repeated his promise that there would be no "fronting" in the Circuit Attorney's office if he were elected, but added that at the same time he would always be willing to hear facts and circumstances affecting any prosecution, so that justice might be done.

Col. Bennett Clark, son of the late Champ Clark and vice chairman of the regional Democratic organization, made a plea for support of Charles M. Hay, Democratic candidate for United States Senator.

MELLON'S AID ASKS SMITH
TO LOOK UP FINANCIAL FACTS

Under-Secretary Mills Says Democratic Nominee Reassures Charges Without Supporting Proof.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Under-Secretary Mills, in the temporary absence of Secretary Mellon, took up the task today of continuing the Treasury debate over Government finances with Gov. Smith. He issued a statement dealing further with the responses to Smith's charge that Government expenditures have been increasing.

"Gov. Smith refuses to confine himself to the record as made," the Mills statement said, "and, when his statements of fact are directly challenged, simply re-asserts them without supporting proof."

"As a sample of Gov. Smith's ignoring the facts, he makes the sweeping assertion: 'There is not a single department of the Federal government that shows a decrease as between 1924 and 1928.' The fact is, that three departments show decreases. As to his charge, that there was an increase in 1927 of $200,000,000 for all departments, I repeat what the Secretary said: 'There was no such increase, and far from showing an increase, total Government expenditures show a decrease in 1927, as compared with 1924.'"

"As a candidate for the presidency, before he undertakes to make assertions as to the cost of the Federal government and to charge the President of the United States with extravagance and the responsible finance officers of the Government with misrepresentation, the least that might be expected of him would be to look up the facts."

ILLINOIS LEGISLATOR INDICTED

Three Others Named as Violating

Clayton road was closed today with in 200 feet of Big Bend road as workmen continued the job of converting it into a 21-foot concrete highway. That section will be reopened for traffic in about a month.

WAR SECRETARY ALSO SAYS
SMITH ERRED AT SEDALIA

Davis Declares Old Speech on Army Housing Was Quoted; Conditions Remedied.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Dwight F. Davis, Secretary of War, in a statement issued yesterday said that Gov. Smith, Democratic presidential nominee, was guilty of misrepresentation in that part of his speech at Sedalia, Mo., referring to army housing conditions.

"In his speech at Sedalia criticizing the economy record of the Republican administration," Secretary Davis said, "Gov. Smith referred to housing conditions in the army and quoted me as saying they were a national disgrace. Like most of

Gov. Smith's utterances, this was only a half statement which entirely distorted the truth. He neglected to say that the speech he referred to was made several years ago and that since that time, at the behest of the administration, Congress has made exceedingly liberal appropriations for the housing of the army.

Robinson Visits Teapot Dome.
CASPER, Wyo., Oct. 19.—A squad of cowboys met Senator Robinson on his arrival here today and escorted him to the city limits on his way to visit Teapot Dome naval oil reserve. Robinson desired to inspect the whole Salt Creek field which has come under Senate investigation. The nominee will speak here tonight.

FIVE IN PARKED AUTO SHOT

Philadelphia Police Attribute Attack to Bootleggers' War.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—A 15-year-old girl and four men companions were shot last night by a man who emerged from a restaurant here and opened fire with a pistol as they sat in a parked automobile. More than 15 shots were fired into the machine by the man who escaped.

The girl, Ella May Giorgio, seriously hurt. Her companions, Charles Brown, 33; Frank Volante, 38; Isador Goldstein, 21, and Rockne Costello, 25, are now dangerously wounded.

Police said they thought a bootleggers' war was the cause of the shooting, but that the gunman took his victims for enemies.

Minister, Rundown, Sick, Gains
7 Lbs. in 3 Weeks

Put Good, Solid Flesh on Those Ugly Bones

Get a Fine, Clear Complexion

© I. Y. Co.

After a 7 weeks' revival campaign I was so entirely run-down and had lost flesh so rapidly I became excited about my condition. My wife and members urged me to do something.

"Then I saw your advertisement of IRONIZED YEAST and decided to give it a 3 weeks' trial. After 2 weeks I found my strength returning and the dull tired feeling gone. At the end of the 3 weeks I had gained 7 lbs. and was myself again. I can recommend IRONIZED YEAST gladly."

Stop Being a "Skinny" Weakling

Imagine just 3 weeks to change from a "skinny", tired, run-down person that nobody thinks much of, to a strong, well-filled-out, "peppy" man or woman that everybody admires. Many letters like the minister's tell how ugly hollows in face and neck vanish. "Broomstick" limbs become gracefully round and chubby. Tired feeling disappears. Blemished skin clears quickly.

Only when Yeast is Ironized is it so wonderfully effective—for Iron is needed to bring out the weight-building and strengthening values of Yeast. That's why IRONIZED YEAST works so marvelously. Pleasant-tasting tablets in a handy bottle. Safe for every body. Never causes gas or bloating.

Go to any drugstore today and get a full size treatment of IRONIZED YEAST. If after this generous trial you are not delighted with results, your money back instantly.

What Doctors All Over Say

"Brewers' Yeast fine in gastro-intestinal disorders and as a weight builder."

"Yeast is of distinct value in general weight building, constipation, lack of appetite, skin eruptions, general run-down condition, etc."

"Have been using Brewers' Yeast in preference to Baker's Yeast, in cachectic (run-down) condition and results were satisfactory. Anemia was improved."

"Have seen good results with Yeast for constipation and acne (pimples). Believe Brewers' Yeast gives better results."

"The above are extracts from the reports of hundreds of well known physicians all over the United States. For professional reasons their names cannot be given here. The reports are on file at our office, however, and may be seen at any time. Note the preference for Brewers' Yeast, the kind used in IRONIZED YEAST."

Well-Known Druggists Everywhere

Recommend Ironized Yeast

Recommend as Fine Body-Builders

"IRONIZED YEAST gives A No. 1 satisfaction and has unusual steady repeat sales. Therefore I do not hesitate to recommend it to anyone in need of a body-builder."—M. F. Schepke, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Used It Himself—Recommends to All

"Used IRONIZED YEAST myself and felt like a new person. I recommend IRONIZED YEAST to my customers and have them come in and thank me for helping them."—C. H. Smith, Baltimore, Md.

Excellent for Rundown People

"I have seen some very good results with IRONIZED YEAST, especially in anemic conditions and recommend it to anyone needing a building tonic."—H. S. Arrington, Norfolk, Va.

MISSOURI HOOVER'S IN LITERARY DIGEST POLL

Gets 63 Pct. of State's Vote Which Is His Average in Nation, Also.

Missouri, with more than 76,000 straw votes cast for the two major candidates in the Literary Digest's presidential poll, this week shows 63 per cent of that vote for Hoover. This, it happens, is the same percentage which Hoover has of the entire vote, now reported from all 48 states, in the total of 2,529,997 accounted for in the magazine's latest tabulation.

The Missouri figures show 48,645 votes for Hoover, of which 9408, or nearly one-fifth, come from former Democrats, and 27,668 for Smith, of which 8944, or nearly one-third, come from former Republicans.

The national totals run: Hoover 1,593,436, of which 233,555, or less than one-sixth, are from former Democrats; Smith, $10,254, of which 334,934, or more than one-third, are from former Republicans. It is to be noted that 15 per cent of all the straw voters do not indicate how they voted in 1924, some because they are new voters, but probably more through neglect.

Only four states show Smith in the lead. These are South Carolina, with 7980 for Smith to 2841 for Hoover, of which latter 1701 are Democratic voters; Mississippi, 7761 for Smith to 3224 (2040 of them Democrats) for Hoover; Louisiana, 13,304 for Smith to 9472 for Hoover; and Georgia, 11,539 Smith to 9903 Hoover.

Southern states which show a lead for Hoover are: Alabama, 13,201 to 11,677; Arkansas, 11,070 to 10,889; Florida, 5534 to 2081; North Carolina, 18,989 to 14,025; Texas, 45,739 to 21,405; and Virginia, 22,151 to 14,891. In all these states except North Carolina one-half, or more of the Hoover strength is shown as coming from those who voted the Democratic ticket in 1924.

As a warning against the drawing of too definite conclusions from these figures for Southern states, the Literary Digest quotes a Southern Democrat as saying that many voters are willing to mark a straw ballot for Hoover, who would think twice before actually voting for a Republican for President.

Smith Leads in New York City.
For the second week, figures from the cities of New York, Chicago and Philadelphia are given. As before, Smith leads in New York, Hoover in the two other cities. The entire enrolled electorate, on the basis of the last previous registration, has been polled.

The Digest announces: The New York City figures are: Smith, 130,822, of whom 37,468 are former Republican voters; Hoover, 93,974, of whom 13,164 are former Democratic voters. The New York City vote, exclusive of minor candidates, was 224,796, out of a pool of 378,187 in New York State. The State vote, which includes that of the city, was: Hoover, 203,656; Smith, 174,531. Deducting the city vote, this leaves the following showing for upstate New York: Hoover, 109,682; Smith, 43,709.

The Chicago poll shows: Hoover, 93,286; Smith, 67,646. For Philadelphia, the figures are: Hoover, 68,495; Smith, 47,810.

More Favorable to Smith.
The Digest speaks of this week's returns as being, for the first time in the present poll, fairly representative of the country as a whole. The division of the vote, 63 per cent to Hoover, 36 to Smith and 1 per cent to minor candidates, is the same as the week before, but the division of the vote is declared to be "slightly more favorable to Gov. Smith than in the earlier tabulations."

About 19,000,000 of the straw ballots have been sent out and the total poll may reach 4,000,000. In 1924, with 16,000,000 ballots sent out, the vote was 2,386,052, or 8 per cent of the vote in the national election. On the basis of the poll, the Literary Digest predicted Presdent Coolidge's re-election, and predicted State results with approximate accuracy, its most successful prediction being that La Follette would carry only his own State, Wisconsin.

7000 TO VISIT HOMES FOR COMMUNITY FUND

Boy Scouts Will Deliver Pamphlets in City and County Tonight.

More than 7000 Boy Scouts will visit homes in the city and county tonight with pamphlets describing the Community Fund and the agencies it underwrites.

The Scouts will appear at private homes, apartment houses and hotels, and, delivering their pamphlets in person, will say: "I am a Boy Scout, and I bring you a message from the Community Fund." The deliveries of pamphlets are scheduled to begin at 7:45 p. m. Four major districts have been subdivided into sections, and the sections in turn into areas. Each of 254 Boy Scout troops will not receive contributions.

The pamphlet is an eight-page illustrated folder dealing with St. Louis welfare problems. The printed appeal in it reads:

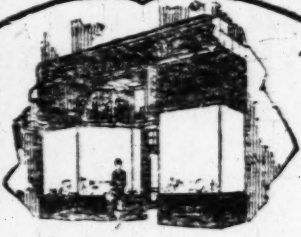

"Led by those whose pictures appear on these pages, more than 4000 citizens of St. Louis and St. Louis County are ready to give you an opportunity to be a good neighbor. As volunteer workers for the seventh annual Community Fund campaign, Oct. 22 to 31, they will ask you to 'Open Your Heart.' Remember, they themselves are giving their time as well as their money. They will ask you to make $1 gifts in one through your annual subscription to the Community Fund for the support of 51 social agencies for the entire year of 1929. Pictures showing just a small part of what these agencies do are scattered through this folder. These agencies care for all, regardless of race or creed.

"Here is your chance to buy for yourself and everyone else in your community better health, better standards of living, better citizenship. Here is your opportunity to help the child, the old person, the sick, the sorrowing, the handicapped, the distressed. Here is your opportunity to build our youth into good citizens of tomorrow.

"No matter how many burdens each one of us may have, there are others who have more. Let us, therefore, like the courageous little boy on the cover, say, 'He ain't heavy; he's my brother' and fill the Heart Treasury of St. Louis and St. Louis County to overflowing. What will your answer be?"

SKY-HY is here

Lubrite's new anti-knock gasoline combines STARTING . . . POWER . . . MILEAGE

Lubrite announces a new motor fuel—SKY-HY. A flashing, prancing, ready-to-go Gasoline for car owners who think enough of their automobiles—and themselves—to insist upon only the best.

SKY-HY is Lubrite's Ritzy cousin. High-hat, no end . . . A new-day gasoline for the motor car of 1928 and 1929. Yet, so good that it makes old motors think they were built tomorrow.

POWER . . . Unwielded power that levels hills and takes the straight-aways like nothing you ever tried before.

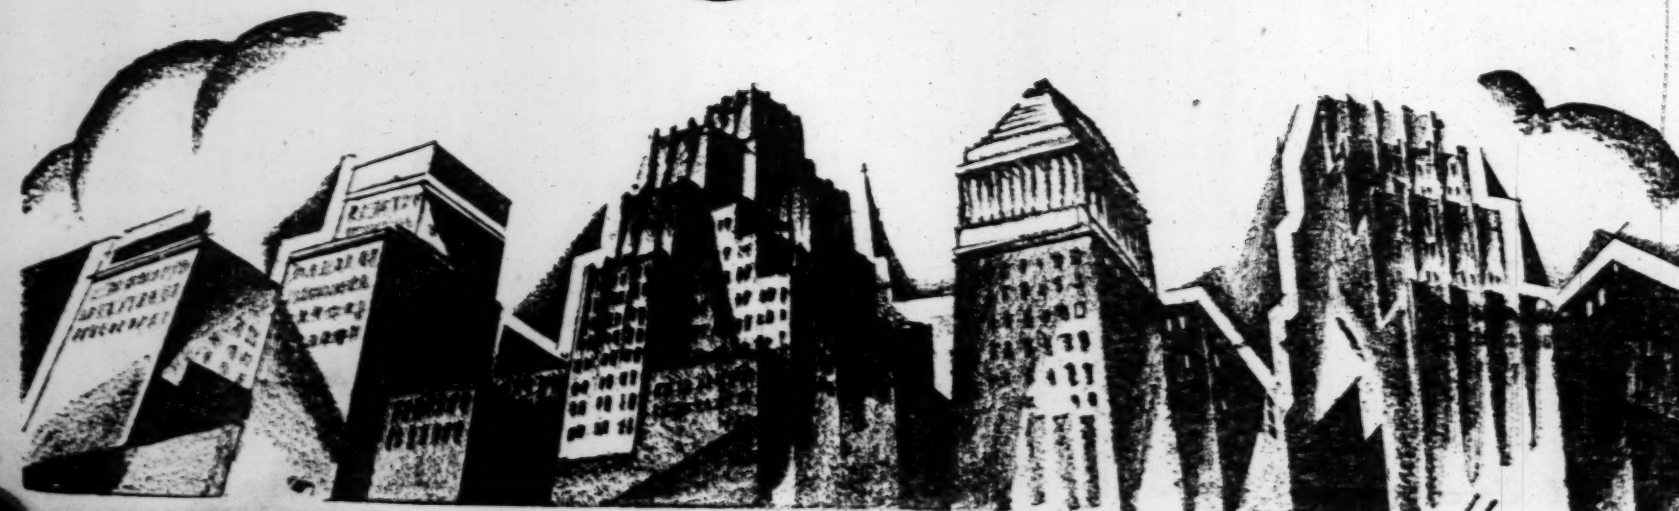

And a smoothness and perfection of combustion that makes a fading memory out of the knock-knock-knock you thought you couldn't lose.

Will you try it? It costs a little more—3 cents, to be exact. But motorists who are using it say it's worth twice the difference. Made in our own refinery by a special and exclusive process. And on sale now through the big silver pumps at Lubrite Service Stations everywhere in Greater St. Louis.

$16,000,000 AIRPLANE CONTRACT TO ST. LOUISCurtiss-Robertson Co. to Deliver 1000 Machines a Year for Five Years.A contract for the sale of airplanes worth approximately $16-000,000 in the next five years was announced by Maj. William Robertson, president of the Curtiss-Robertson Airplane Mfg. Co., un-on his return from New York yesterday following a conference with officials of Curtiss Flying Service, Inc., the purchaser.Maj. Robertson, who is a director of Curtiss Flying Service, Inc., said his company has contracted to supply approximately 1000 Curtiss-Robinson monoplanes to the Curtiss Flying Service each year for the five-year period."Our contract with Curtiss Flying Service, Inc., is probably the biggest aircraft deal so far transacted," Maj. Robertson said. "The production at our plant at Lambert-St. Louis field is gradually being stepped up to three planes a day, which will enable us to fill the contract."The Curtiss-Robinson is a three-place monoplane selling at retail for $4000. Curtiss Flying Service, Inc., also has purchased the output of the Sikorsky Airplane Co. of New Jersey, makers of an amphibian type plane. The output of several other factories will be bought by the company, which plans to "merchandise" airplanes and spare parts, in addition to operating flying schools and intercity aerial taxi service throughout the country.Curtiss Flying Service Inc., recently was organized with a capital of $10,000,000. Charles "Casey" Jones, noted flyer, is head of thecompany and is expected here next week to select a location for a flying school and sales department.

Half-Billion in Credit Thiefs.

Retail credit thieves prey on wholesalers and manufacturers to the amount of at least $500,000,000 yearly, Frank D. Rock, president of the National Association of Credit Men, said last night in an address before the St. Louis Association of Credit Men at the City Club. This loss is largely passed on to the consumer in higher prices, Rock added.

Never an Iron on My Hair

Wherever my theatrical engagements happen to take me I could have a marcel, but I never do. I prefer my own method—waving my hair with my Wave and Sheen.I always keep my hair clean by shampooing once a week. I apply Wave and Sheen with a comb.
You can use a brush, or just your hands.I dampen the hair with it—insert combs in the direction I wish the waves and forget it for about an hour.
Some types of hair require more time, some less.The result is a soft, lovely, undulating wave. Most people in my audiences think I have it marcelled.
Many ask whether it is a natural wave. It is not.You can have this same sheen to matter what method you use to wave your hair. Get a bottle at any toilet counter for 75 cents. One trial will convince you as it has thousands of others.Woodrow Wilson Statue for Poland

TEST ROCKNE ELEVEN WELL IN PRACTICE

Rockne's Picks Minnesota to defeat Chicago, Ohio State favored over Michigan, Illinois to win from Indiana, Wisconsin to defeat Purdue, Northwestern to down Kentucky, Iowa to win over Ripon, Georgia Tech has excellent chance to defeat Notre Dame, Kansas Aggies to trim Kansas, Missouri to defeat Iowa State, Drake to win over Grinnell, Marquette to defeat Oklahoma Aggies, Oklahoma-Creighton game a toss-up.

By KNUTE ROCKNE, Coach Notre Dame University. SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 19.—Back in the good old days, one of the annual high spots of the Mid-West football season was the game between Doc Williams' Maroons from Chicago, who had won the national championship, and the Stagg Maroons from Chicago. A lot of football history has been written up from these contests after an interval of 10 years. Chicago tomorrow is again resuming relations with the Gophers. Doc Williams has retired from active coaching, but another medico, Dr. Sears, is at the helm in his place. Under Sears, Minnesota's steam roller is just as potent as ever, but Chicago has stepped down from the seats of the mighty. Stagg hasn't the material to hold Minnesota, but I hazard a guess that he will hold them to a closer score than most people anticipate.

Michigan and Ohio will play to a draw at Columbus. It looks like an off year for Michigan, while Ohio seems to be unusually well fortified. In spite of the apparent odds in favor of the Buckeyes, I look for the Michigan team to make it a real game. The elimination of the other teams will be a relief to the fans, but the Michigan supporters expect to see championship games every year and an off season just merely gives the other fellow a rest.

Two undefeated conference teams meet at Urbana when Pat Geary brings his revamped Hoosiers to invade Zuppke's lot. The Illinois team to be coming along with balance and strength in every department of the game. Indiana will make it a tough game that will be well worth seeing. Randolph, McCracken and Matthews are extraordinary good linemen, and Faunce, Rinehart, Harrel, Bennett and Ross make a classy backfield. Zuppke's team has not been pressed, but they will be pressed tomorrow. The game will indicate clearly just how good Illinois is. I have a hunch that Zuppke has a great team.

Picks Wisconsin to win. Wisconsin invades Lafayette, Ind., with a fine group of athletes. Randolph has two strong teams and despite the fact that Jimmy Phelan has a better Purdue team than usual, the Badgers have the edge.

Northwestern and Iowa have games with Kentucky and Ripon, and the Big Ten schools should not experience any difficulty. Notre Dame invades Atlanta to play Georgia Tech in an inter-sectional game. Scouts report that Georgia Tech has its best team in a decade. The Yellow Jackets have been sitting since the opening of the season waiting for this game. This is the seventh meeting of the two teams, and while Georgia Tech has never won from Notre Dame, they have an excellent chance of doing so this Saturday.

Nebraska is favored. Syracuse, one of the strong Eastern teams, goes to Lincoln to tangle with the Cornhuskers. Nebraska appears to be unusually powerful this year and with the battering ram Howell leading the attack should wear the Syracuse team down before the afternoon is over.

The annual civil-war in Kansas will be resumed at Manhattan when Bill Hargis brings his Jayhawkers over to the Kansas State stadium. Bo McMillin seems to be doing a fine job at Manhattan and his team appears a little stronger than Kansas.

Missouri should not have a great deal of trouble beating the crippled Iowa State team. The loss of both Miller and Lindbloom was a severe blow to Iowa State while Missouri looks to have its usual line team. Missouri should win the game without having to open up much for the benefit of the Nebraska scouts who will be on hand.

Of the Non-Conference games Marquette should win from Oklahoma A. and M., but the Creighton-Wayne game seems to be a toss-up. Wayne has reorganized his team since the Minnesota game and his eleven should give Oklahoma an even battle.

RECORD CROWDS WILL SEE SOUTHERN TEAMS IN ACTION THIS WEEK

ATLANTA, Oct. 19.—Southern conference football teams this week will probably play before record breaking early season crowds with some 125,000 fans expected to see the thirteen games in which their favorites play.

Georgia Tech, meeting Notre Dame at Grant Field here, is expected 35,000 while approximately 20,000 is the forecast for Tulane and Vanderbilt at New Orleans. North Carolina and Virginia Polytechnic Institute, meeting at Chapel Hill, should attract at least 15,000 while Florida and Mercer at Gainesville, Alabama and Tennessee at Tusculosa, Virginia Military Institute and Virginia at Lexington, and Mississippi A. & M. and Louisiana State at Jackson each should bring out between 7,500 and 10,000.

The Georgia-Furman game at Athens also is expected to attract 7,500, while as many as 5,000 may see South Carolina and Presbyterian at Columbia.

WEBSTER ARCHERS TO COMPETE IN FINAL OUTDOOR SHOOT SUNDAY

HARVARD WILL RELY ON PASSES TO DEFEAT ARMY

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—New England will be a mecca for Atlantic seaboard pigskin followers tomorrow with such outstanding attractions as the Army-Harvard, Brown-Yale, Columbia-Dartmouth and Fordham-Holy Cross games.

The Army, given a rather large dose of forward passes by Southern Methodist two weeks ago, will get similar treatment at the Harvard Stadium, where Arnold Horween has been spending the week developing an aerial offense. The Cadets nosed out Southern Methodist by one point, but Horween has hopes of bettering the Texans' record.

After Yale's defeat of Georgia, there are few to give Brown more than an outside chance of beating Yale at New Haven, for Tuss McLaughry's eleven was not especially effective against Dayton.

Columbia must stop Al Marsters and a well-planned aerial attack if she hopes to conquer Dartmouth at Hanover. Fordham's problem, on the other hand, will be to stop the hard-plunging Holy Cross backs.

Some More Big Games. What New England fails to get in the way of football publicity tomorrow will fall to Pennsylvania, where such games as Penn State-Pennsylvania, Bucknell-Lafayette, Washington and Jefferson-Carnegie Tech, Pittsburgh-Allegheny, Loyola, Maryland-Duquesne and Gettysburg-Villanova are on the program.

Syracuse and Colgate will carry the empire state's banners into inter-sectional conflict. Syracuse, unbeaten so far, will need all its strength to turn back Nebraska at Lincoln. Colgate, playing a heavy inter-sectional schedule with mixed success, tackles Michigan State.

New Jersey will have an opportunity to see a revised Princeton lineup do battle with Lehigh and Navy will seek its first victory in four starts against Duke. Georgetown, leading the East in scoring, takes on West Virginia Wesleyan.

West Virginia goes to the State Capitol, Charleston, to renew its feud with Washington and Lee.

Davis and Elkins, victor over West Virginia, Navy and Bluefield College, meets the Quantico Marines at Fairmont.

Teams that have taken the most likings over periods of years stand out as favorites to win in many of the traditional rivalries.

RIVERS AND PAGALINI TO REPORT TODAY FOR BOUTS AT COLISEUM

Joey Rivers, Kansas City featherweight boxer, who will defend his claim to State championship honors in one of the 10-round events featuring next Monday night's professional boxing show at the New Coliseum, is due to report in St. Louis today. He will be assigned training quarters at the National Gymnasium.

Steadman appears to be in first class condition after two weeks of diligent training at the Motorbus Gymnasium.

A comparison of the records of Steadman and Rivers would indicate the Kansas City scrapper is an odds-on favorite for Steadman was twice defeated by Joe Pagalini in Louisville bouts while Rivers handed Pagalini a beating here last season.

Pagalini, who is paired with Al De Rose of Newark, N. J., in another 10-round feature, is also due to report today. In two recent bouts the Louisville slugger defeated Frankie Osner and Phil O'Dowd, indicating that he is in the pink of condition, and that he will be prepared to put forth his best efforts in the coming engagement.

De Rose is a speedy little ring artist with a number of impressive triumphs to his credit, including decisions over Jimmy Watts, Joey Rivers, Johnny Brown, Joe Ryder, California Joe Lynch, Tommy Grogan, Pete Sacramento, Harry Forbes and Bob Sargent. He reported here Wednesday and is now working out at the National Gymnasium.

Johnny "Peewee" Kaiser is also tapering off at the National for his impending 10-rounder with Jimmy Harris of Cincinnati, billed as the main event of Monday night's program. Harris reported to Matchmaker Tippet last night and will start his local training work today.

LATZO CANCELS FOUR FIGHTS AS RESULT OF RECENT INJURY

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Pete Latzo picked up some of that "easy money" Wednesday night. He picked up $700 for boxing Jimmy Braddock in Newark, N. J., lost the decision, suffered a broken jaw and has been forced to cancel dates that would have been worth $30,000 to him.

Latzo had been matched with Charley Belanger, Canadian light heavyweight, in Toronto, on Oct. 9; with Joe Anderson in Philadelphia, on Nov. 5; with George Courtney of Detroit, on Nov. 19, and Tuffy Griffiths in Madison Square Garden, on Nov. 20.

ILLINOI CO-EDS ACTIVE IN OUTDOOR SPORTS

URBANA, Ill., Oct. 19.—Hundreds of co-eds attending the University of Illinois are participating in outdoor sports for women this fall. More than 250 being registered in the hockey, soccer and tennis classes and 181 in other sports. The department of physical education for women also conducts a number of indoor classes.

GRANGE IN VAUDEVILLE; CONSIDERS RETURNING TO GRID FOR ONE GAME

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Harold "Red" Grange, of Gallopina Ghost, of Illinois football history, is now doing a song and dance act in vaudeville, but he may return to the gridiron for just one more game this fall.

"Sometimes I think I'd like to play one more game and sometimes I'm not so sure," Grange remarked between curtain calls yesterday.

HOWELL OF NEBRASKA HAS BIG LEAD IN BIG 6 SCORING RACE

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 19.—With the Big Six football teams still gathering momentum for the important late October and November battles, Blue Howell, co-captain of the University of Nebraska eleven is well in the lead for individual scoring honors. His 30 points gained by five touchdowns in two games, Iowa State and Montana State, give him a 12-point lead over his nearest rival, Wells of the Kansas Aggies who has 18.

INSTALL GOOD EATING HABITS

Young Children Can Readily Be Taught Good Food Habits. Any child who gets started off right in his diet when it comes time to eating solid food is sure to build up good eating habits. He gets this right start according to the way in which food is prepared and presented to him. Small amounts of new foods should be given at first; they should be well cooked, thoroughly mashed and fed slowly. Never force a child to eat too fast or to swallow large spoonfuls of food.

$100.00 cash and 100 additional prizes are offered for letters about Standard's Royal Patent Flour. Ask any grocer for details, or phone MAin 2102. Contest closes Oct. 25.

SPINACH AND FRIED BREAD IS A NEW COMBINATION

One of the Many Ways of Serving This Versatile Vegetable. Pick over, then wash two pounds of spinach. Put in a large kettle with one tablespoon of water. Cover closely and cook for 20 minutes. The juice of the spinach will be drawn out by the heat in sufficient quantities to steam the spinach. When done, drain, saving the juice and chop very fine. Put in a heavy frying pan or saucepan with the spinach juice, salt to season, one tablespoon of butter and one-third cup of milk. Heat to the boiling point and sprinkle with two tablespoons of flour. Cook for a minute or two. A single grating of nutmeg may be added for additional flavor. Fry three slices of bread in butter, then cut each into four triangles. Put the spinach in a hot dish and garnish with pieces of fried bread.

FOR VARIETY and HEALTH Serve WHITE STAR TUNA often

Here is the ideal combination, a food that is unusually rich in rare health building elements... and famous for its goodness, besides! To obtain enough of the phosphorus and iodine which our bodies need we all should eat more sea foods, and in WHITE STAR TUNA Nature has provided for us liberally, together with a rare delicacy of flavor.

A million-dollar fishing fleet ranges far and wide to secure the choicest of the catch, and then... in kitchens that are models of cleanliness this prized delicacy is prepared for your table. Your grocer has WHITE STAR TUNA in a convenient, economical can containing a liberal portion. Buy this tender, firm-fleshed food more often. You will discover endless ways to enjoy it.

White Star Tuna Chowder

Chop medium sized onion, bacon, salt pork, fry all a light brown in two ounces of butter. Have ready three cups of cooked diced potatoes, season with salt and pepper. Mix all with one can of White Star Brand Tuna. Heat one quart of rich milk, add crackers and butter. Serve hot.

TIME CONSERVATION TIPS

Six Suggestions for Saving Time in Preparing Meals.

1. In the short-cut meal a judicious use may be made of canned fruits, bouillon cubes, rolls or light bakery cake and the menu made as fussy as desired by the addition of pickles, relishes, salted nuts and hot breads.
2. Let me again give these suggestions:
3. Make the kitchen step-saving by establishing:
4. Good grouping of materials and utensils into:
5. Efficient work centers.
6. Plan for a "balanced" menu.
7. Assemble all materials and utensils before starting the cooking process.
8. Practice co-ordinated cooking.

FANCY TOUCHES THAT DRESS UP THE SOUP

Soup Is Now Considered Essential in Our Daily Meal Planning.

Macaroni or spaghetti partly cooked in boiling salted water, drained, sliced rather fine and the cooking finished in the soup not only "dresses" up the soup, but also adds food value.

Rice, tapioca, or the other spaghetti products as vermicelli, and that which comes in the shape of stars, letters of the alphabet, or shells, can all be used in the same way. If these are entirely cooked in the clear soup they will give a cloudy appearance to the soup. It is best, therefore, to partially cook them first before adding to the soup.

Vegetables cut in thin strips (julienne) or carrots, green peppers, pimiento, beets, egg white, cut in fancy shapes with the handy and attractive little cutters which are offered for our use today will dress up the otherwise plain broth.

Thin slices of lemon, or orange, the rind removed, are frequently seen floating in the clear soup, and lend a particularly delicious taste to either lamb broth or mock turtle soup.

Slices of hard cooked eggs or the whole egg yolk, or a bit of the grated egg yolk, or white, are often used to top the cream or clear soup.

Whipped cream, slightly salted, and mixed with a bit of finely chopped parsley or green pepper and pimiento gives the party air and a delicious flavor to the cream soup.

Grated cheese or chopped parsley sprinkled either on the clear or cream soup is flavorful.

Salted almonds, halved or minced or chestnuts are being added to the soups before serving. Very thin slices of bread with the crusts removed cut in fancy shapes and toasted very crisp or browned in the oven makes a delicious accompaniment to any soup.

RECIPES FOR DISHES IN WEEK'S MENUS

If Carefully Followed, These Recipes Will Make Very Tasty Dishes.

Apple sauce is especially good when made by cutting the tart early apples in quarters without peeling or coring them, then putting them in a saucepan with enough water to half cover. Cover the pan and cook the apples for 15 minutes until they are very soft. Then run them through a strainer or a fruit press and add for each three cups of apple pulp about one-half cup of sugar and one-quarter teaspoon of cloves, one teaspoon of cinnamon and one-quarter teaspoon of allspice. Mix the spice with the sugar before adding to the hot apple sauce. Cook for about five minutes and cool before serving.

Roast Leg of Veal.
The leg, cushion (thick part of leg), and loin are suitable pieces for roasting. When leg is to be used, it should be boned. Wipe meat, sprinkle with salt and pepper, stuff and sew in shape. Place on rack in dripping pan, dredge meat and bottom of pan with flour, and place around meat strips of salt pork. Bake three or four hours in moderate oven, basting every 15 minutes with one-half cup butter melted in one-half cup boiling water, until used; then baste with fat in pan. Serve with brown gravy.

Salmon Loaf.
Remove bones and skin from a can of salmon. Fork fine and add four tablespoons melted butter. Beat four eggs slightly and add to them one cup bread crumbs, one teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper. Add this to salmon mixture. Mix well but avoid making paste. Put into greased mold and steam one hour. Serve with white sauce.

Clove Cookies.
Take one-half cup butter, two cups brown sugar, four eggs, four cups flour, two teaspoons cloves, two teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon cinnamon, one tablespoon melted chocolate.

Cream butter and sugar. Add eggs and flour sifted with baking powder and spices. Then add melted chocolate. Roll out, and bake in a moderately hot oven 15 to 20 minutes.

Apple Pie.
Line a pie pan with pie pastry. For filling use six apples, one-half cup sugar, one-fourth teaspoon salt, the same of mace and one tablespoon butter.

Cut apples fine. Sift sugar, salt and spice and stir well. Mix thoroughly with apples. Turn into pie pan. Line with crust, dot with small pieces of butter or fat. Put on top crust, pushing it toward the center and pressing off edges. Bake in a moderate oven.

HOW TO MAKE A NOODLE RING AND HOW TO SERVE IT
An Attractive Dish for a Company Luncheon or Family

A noodle ring is made by using boiled noodles in combination with eggs and milk as follows: Cook one-half pound of noodles in boiling, salted water for 10 minutes or until tender. Then drain thoroughly and rinse with cold water. Beat the yolk of three eggs with one teaspoon of salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper and one-half teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Add one cup of milk and stir this into the noodles. Beat the whites of the eggs until stiff, fold them into the mixture and pour into a well-buttered ring mold.

Place the mold in a pan of hot water and bake as you do custard in a moderate oven—275 degrees—for 40 minutes.

Then turn out on a hot plate, fill the center with mixed vegetables, with creamed meat or fish, with chopped hard-boiled eggs and applesauce mixed with cream sauce, or serve the noodle ring as it is with cheese sauce.

If desired, one-half cup grated cheese may be mixed with the noodles when the eggs and milk are added. This adds, of course, to the food value as well as to the flavor.

CALL TO MAKE FRUIT RELISHES

Spiced Fruits Will Tempt the Family's Cold Weather Appetite.

The housewife who has a good supply of delicious spiced fruits and preserves on hand possesses the means of supplying just that which is so necessary if one is to have a reputation for good meals. It is the time to build up a supply of these appetizing foods and they are simple to make and easy to keep. I am giving several recipes that even the very inexperienced cook can use successfully. They are excellent to use with cold meats, with many of the hot meats, to serve with a ring of cheese and toasted crackers, to use often as an accompaniment to certain salads, to garnish fruit cups, etc.

Cranberries, crab apples, green tomatoes, melon rind, pears—these are still to be had; canned pineapple can be used at any time of year to make a delicious sweet pickle; sliced carrots make a delicious spiced mixture.

For a sweet spiced melon rind, use the thick rind from cantaloupe. Cut it in small balls or peel off the outside and cut the rest in small cubes or in fancy pieces as desired. Let them stand over night in strong salted water, made by mixing one-half cup of salt with six cups of water.

In the morning drain thoroughly, rinse with clear, cold water and weigh the rind. For each two pounds make a syrup by boiling together one and one-half pounds of light brown sugar, one cup of vinegar and one cup of water, one woman whole cloves, an inch stick of cinnamon and two slices of lemon. Cook the syrup for 10 minutes, boiling rapidly. Then add melon rind and cook slowly until transparent.

Pack into small jars—pints or half pints are best, and seal at once. These may be used to top a cocktail as a garnish for fruit and may be used in a cream cheese mold and in many other ways.

Cranberry conserve is another delicious dainty. Pick over and wash two pounds of ripe cranberries. Chop two pounds of seeded apples. Peel four oranges, cover the peel with cold water and boil until tender, then drain and chop in small pieces. Cut the orange pulp in small pieces and remove the pits. Mix all of the fruits together with five pounds of granulated sugar; let stand for one-half hour and then heat slowly until the sugar is dissolved and the mixture boiling.

Boil for about 45 minutes stirring frequently. By that time the mixture should be as thick as marmalade. Pour into sterilized jelly glasses and when cold seal with melted paraffin. One-quarter pound of finely chopped blanched almonds may be stirred into the conserve after it is taken from the fire.

Sweet pickled crab apples are good. The pink-checked crab apples make the prettiest sweet pickle. Wash the apples, remove the stems and cut them in half. If you cannot get the others, wash five pounds of the crab apples, leave on the stems and be sure that the fruit is perfect—no worm holes or spots. Pick three whole cloves in each crab apple. Mix together one quart mild vinegar, two pounds brown sugar and one ounce of stick cinnamon, the peel of one lemon cut in long strips, and boil hard for five minutes.

Add the crab apples and cook slowly until the apples are tender enough to piece with a fork. Drain them from the syrup and place in a stone crock or in sterilized jars. Boil the syrup for 10 minutes longer, then pour over the apples, cover and let stand at least a week before using. The apples will keep indefinitely and do not need to be washed. These are excellent with roast chicken, with cold meat, roast goose, or to use as a garnish for grape and pineapple salad, for pear and cream cheese salad, etc.

WHIPPED COFFEE GELATIN OFFERS A NICE CHANGE
Serves 12 When a Dainty Dessert Is Wanted for a Heavy Meal.

Soak three tablespoons of gelatin in one-half cup of cold water for 10 minutes. Then dissolve in two cups of strong hot coffee. Add one-half cup of sugar, the juice of one orange lemon and cool the mixture until it begins to thicken. Then stir in the beaten whites of two eggs and one-half cup of cream whipped stiff. Beat the bowl of gelatin in a pan of ice water and whip the mixture until it is stiff enough to hold the shape.

Pile into sherbet cups, garnish with a maraschino cherry or some grated chocolate and serve very cold.

The yolks of the eggs may be used to make a custard sauce to serve with the gelatin if desired.

When Butter Is Hard.
In making a large number of sandwiches, soften butter in double boiler over warm water and beat until of creamy spreading consistency.

Super Suds

gives new whiteness to clothes

Amazing beads of soap save one rinsing—get clothes whiter—giant package only a dime!

HERE'S a speedy new soap that dissolves instantly and completely—Super Suds. It's soap in a new form—tiny thin-walled beads that make a perfect soapy solution the instant hot water hits them.

First there was only bar soap. Then came chips and flakes, which were better but wasteful—and still slow to dissolve. At last came Super Suds—as superior to chips as chips were to cake soap!

Pour Super Suds into your tub or washing machine. Turn on hot water. Beads of soap all go into solution. Disappear! Vanish!

Start the machine or stir the water. Instantly—beautiful suds all ready for work! No cutting up bar soap into small pieces. No time wasted trying to get flakes and chips to dissolve completely. No fear of soap sticking in clothes.

How much Super Suds to use?

That depends on the size of your wash and the hardness of your water. Between one and three teacups, usually. Use enough—but not too much; just pour in the beaded soap until you get a good, full, lasting suds. Then go ahead.

COMPARE! Put Super Suds to this speed test. Take a pan of warm water and two strainers. In one a tablespoon of any chip soap. In the other the same amount of Super Suds, the new bead soap. Plunge both strainers into the water. Stir both briskly with spoons while you count ten—slowly. Then—lift both strainers! In one strainer, half the chip soap still there—undissolved, wasted, dangerous to fabrics. In the other, Super Suds all gone!... Quick-dissolving Super Suds saves dishwashing time, makes clothes whiter.

And don't forget to use a second suds after washing. It's always better than going direct from wash water to the clean rinse.

Do try Super Suds for your next wash. See for yourself how much easier Super Suds makes rinsing. See how white and soft and sweet your white things are, and how fresh and clean and sharp colored gingham and house dresses are.

From Coast to Coast bead soap is replacing chips and flakes

All over the country women are turning to the new-form bead soap, because every woman knows how important it is to have a soap that dissolves instantly and completely.

Super Suds is not like chips, flakes, powders. It is four times as thin as chips. Thinner than any soap ever made before. That's why no other soap can possibly do your work so fast.*

Super Suds is as fine in the dishpan as in the washtub. Try it for dishes too. No wiping needed. Just hot rinse and drain. China dries gleaming bright without wiping. Full directions on every package. Just ask for Super Suds and your grocer will hand you the largest box of soap you ever saw for 10 cents!

PLANNING MENUS FOR THE COMING WEEK

Thought Should Be Given To wards Properly Balancing Them.

Our meal plan for this week includes four vegetable meals—dinner and three lunches. It will be seen in planning these that have been selected that give contrast in flavor, texture and color that one hearty food is placed in each meal and that it is planned to include all of the necessary principles.

For instance, Monday's luncheon has baked rice with cheese sauce as the main course. Here the cheese and the milk used in the sauce supply necessary protein; rice, of course, a food rich in starch, and this is a soft dish, raw celery and the necessary contrast in texture and supplies some bulk by means of its stringy fiber. Whole wheat muffins supply minerals, some protein, starch and added bulk.

Dessert is baked apples with some spice if desired or they may be baked with raisins. A few nuts stuffed in the cavity from which the core has been removed. The cream adds fat; the baked apples furnish minerals, fruit acids and some bulk if the skins are eaten.

Tuesday's dinner is a vegetable meal in which Italian spaghetti forms the main dish. This is served with tomato sauce and grated Parmesan cheese. Broccoli sprouts and braised celery are used as vegetables giving the necessary contrast in flavor and supplying minerals.

A cold crisp salad with a filling of grapefruit and dates served with a cream dressing will give a very desirable note of flavor and a contrast in texture, especially as it is served with crisp 'croutons'.

On Thursday our vegetable meal is luncheon and a mixed vegetable salad makes the main dish. Raw vegetables should be used in this—either grated raw carrots, shredded cabbage, diced celery mixed with one or more canned vegetables such as lima beans, string beans, any left-over Brussels sprouts, etc.

Bran muffins form the breakfast and a creamy rice pudding the dessert. A starchy pudding or dessert like this is necessary with a vegetable salad to supply the needed "filling" quality and the necessary amount of starch or energy food.

Saturday's luncheon is also a vegetable meal in which baked beans make the main dish. These may be either home-made or the commercial canned variety and may be served either hot or cold. They are perhaps best hot, the time of year, when served with cold spiced apple sauce.

Wonderful, too. Don't fail to try it. Get a cake today for the hair and bath. Try it.

VARIOUS WAYS WITH PRUNES

While Most Housewives Steer Them, They Are Nice When Stewed. Prunes, in the ordinary stewed form, as they are so often served, sometimes lose their popularity. When this is the case, try stewing them instead. Use the same process, commonly known as the "dry-forties."

Cover them with boiling water—water that is actively boiling—cover the dish immediately and let the prunes stand for 10 minutes. Then drain off the water. Put the cover back and let the prunes stand.

To Slice Brown Bread. Brown bread may be sliced while hot without becoming "soggy." Instead of a knife, a clean piece of string is used to draw through the loaf.

SUGGESTED TIDBITS FOR TASTY ENTREES

Frequently Used As Part of an Elaborate Luncheon or Dinner.

Entrees are dishes that are served as individual courses between the main courses of a formal dinner. They are also often used as the main course at luncheon or supper, especially in these days of more simple meals, and they are in nicely when simple refreshments are wished for home entertaining. Entrees may be either hot or cold but are always light in character and should be made up as attractively as possible, both in respect of garnishing and the method of serving.

Fish and shell fish, chicken, eggs, mushrooms, peas, tomato, asparagus and some of the fruits, may be used in making entrees. In the hot group are creamed mixtures served in individual ramekins, dishes, in patty shells, in cream puff cases, or as croûtes, made by filling little loaves. There are also the forcemeat mixtures, cutlets, croquettes, fritters and soufflés in a great variety of combinations and seasonings.

Cold entrees are more popular for luncheon or supper or for buffet meals. These offer even more opportunity for the display of skill on the part of the cook and may be quite elaborate in appearance. Jellied mixtures, such as stuffed eggs in aspic, mayonnaise of salmon, chicken or tongue, mousse, the simpler jellied vegetable moulds or plain cold, flaked fish with a well-made dressing—all these are appetizing and sure to be liked.

When entrees are served for the luncheon or supper mainstay, more generous portions are, of course, used. When they are part of a more elaborate meal, or are used for buffet luncheons or suppers, individual servings in small amounts should be arranged.

An excellent hot luncheon entree for a cauliflower soufflé. To make it, wash a small white head of cauliflower, separate it into small pieces, and cook for 15 minutes in boiling, salted water. Drain and put in the bottom of a buttered baking dish. These made of glass are more attractive. Melt four tablespoons of butter, add three tablespoons of flour and one cup milk. Cook until the sauce is very thick then remove from the fire, add the beaten yolks of three eggs, salt and pepper to season, and cool slightly. Then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs. Pour this over the cauliflower, and sprinkle thickly with one-fourth cup of finely grated cheese. Bake for 45 minutes in a hot oven and serve hot.

THE SUCCESS OF HASH RESTS IN COMBINING INGREDIENTS

Make It So It Will Be Moist and Soft, as It Should Be.

Perhaps the secret in making good hash lies as much in the combining of the ingredients as it does in the cooking, and is equally divided between the two. In the first place, there should be as much potato as there is meat. That is, if you have two cups finely chopped meat, you should use two cups finely diced or chopped potatoes, one tablespoon or more of finely chopped onion, and one cup of left-over gravy, or if this is not available, three-fourths cup of milk. This amount of liquid is necessary to keep the hash moist during cooking. Melt two tablespoons of

of women. Lewis' Lye is its name. Once used, nothing else can take its place with the discriminating housewife. This is why:

The finer ground the lye is, the faster and more economically it works. For that reason, today most women are using Lewis' Lye. Lewis' is the oldest brand on the market, the standard for 60 years. Uniformity, strength and purity of every can is insured by 15 tests before it can go out. Thus the housewife can be sure of best results from its use.

LEWIS' LYE is endorsed by Sanitation Authorities. It costs only 15c for a large can. Thousands of women know how quickly and easily it opens any clogged drain—many housewives prevent stoppage simply by using a tablespoonful or two in every drain once a week.

Winners of Cash Prizes in St. Louis Area

Thousands of attractive recipes were submitted in our Prize Recipe Contest. I am starting today to share them with you through these columns. After careful testing the judges awarded the eight cash prizes for the St. Louis area as follows:

First Prize—$15:
Mrs. F. W. Werner
Leland Hotel, Murphysboro, Ill.

Second Prize—$10 each:
Mrs. Ben M. Audrain
4176a Flad Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Felix Garner
4166 Linden Blvd., St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Charlotte K. Stump 3323a Chippewa St., St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. H. V. Herder
Box 215, Slater Mo.

Mrs. H. E. Nelson
Elvins, Mo.

Beginning today, some of the prize winning recipes will appear each week in these columns. Watch for them! Mary Hale Martin, Cooking Correspondent, Libby, McNeill & Libby, Dept. P-D-13, Welfare Bldg., Chicago.

Piquant and original, this new Meat-wich dish

Here is a combination I find an autumn favorite as a "whole meal" salad or "after bridge" treat. Eggs stuffed with Libby's Meat-wich Spread—rich, spicy, satisfying.

Choice meats, red-ripe tomatoes, the finest spices, delicately blended by Libby's master chefs, give Meat-wich its tantalizing piquancy. Delight your family and friends by using it this new way as a stuffing for eggs.

Maraschino Pear Pie made with Libby's Maraschino Cherries and Libby's Bartlett Pears (see recipe below)

The Grand Prize winner in our Recipe Contest

I KNOW you are all eager to hear about the winning dishes in our Prize Recipe Contest which closed September 25th. The competition was run in the following areas: Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Los Angeles, Atlanta and Riverside. You will find a complete list of the winners for this area in the column at the left.

But today I particularly want to tell you about the Grand Prize winning dish. And next week I shall print the recipe of your own area's First Prize winner. Watch for it in this column next week!

The marvelously attractive Maraschino Pear Pie which you see pictured above is the entry of Mrs. F. W. Biester, 603 Clement Ave., Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Of all the splendid recipes turned in, the judges agree that this one is the best. It is original, delightful to look at, and surpassingly good to taste! Many of the recipes boasted one or two of these features, but no other combined all three to such a remarkable degree.

The judges thought it would be nice to give some very special recognition to this truly noteworthy dish. And they hit upon the idea of awarding a Grand Prize, in addition to the prizes already offered. So Mrs. Biester is being given a Grand Prize of five cases of assorted Libby's Foods and also $15 for the First Prize in the Milwaukee area.

In commenting on the Grand Prize dish, one of the judges said: "I consider this recipe a real gem. It is one more indication of the alertness, the eager ingenuity, the artistry of the American housewife in the field of cookery. I congratulate Mrs. Biester on her wholly new, wonderfully tempting creation."

Meanwhile the author of the prize dish remarks quite simply that she and her family like this pie for its "goodness." And she realizes that this goodness depends upon the use of the best ingredients. That's why she uses and recommends Libby's Bartlett Pears and Libby's Maraschino Cherries.

Libby grows these pears in the pleasant valleys of California and Oregon. Sun-drenched, juice-laden fruit. Plucked in all its glorious, full-ripeness. Packed the same day in model kitchens at the orchard's edge. All the smooth, mild, sweet flavor sealed in.

Perhaps, it has occurred to you how few combination fruit pies there really are. You'll certainly want to try this one. For best results, be sure to follow Mrs. Biester's advice: use Libby's Bartlett Pears and Maraschino Cherries.

Maraschino Pear Pie
1/2 cup Libby's Maraschino Cherries
1 No. 2 1/2 can Libby's Bartlett Pears
1/2 cup syrup from Pears
3 tbsps. lemon juice
1/2 cup sugar
2 tbsps. flour
1 tbsps. butter

Drain and chop Cherries and Pears. Add Pear juice, lemon juice and heat to boiling point. Mix sugar and flour, moistened with a little cold juice, then add to hot fruit, stirring until thickened. Add butter and cool. Line a pie plate with pastry. Put in filling and arrange narrow strips of pastry over the top. Bake in a hot oven until brown.

To heighten the decorative effect, the judges found it a good plan to set five half Pears and five whole Cherries on top of the pie.

When prunes are not "just prunes"

How few dessert dishes there seem to be when you're just a bit rushed! Here is one you'll like—an enticing Prune Jelly.

You'll never know Prune flavor at its best until you've tried this jelly made with Libby's Prunes. I always use Libby's Prunes. They are so plump, meaty, and rich.

Prune Jelly Dessert
2 tbsps. gelatine
1 cup Prune Syrup
1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup Libby's Prunes, chopped
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup whole Libby's Prunes

Soak gelatine 5 minutes in cold water. Drain syrup from No. 2 1/2 can of Prunes. Heat with sugar, add gelatine; dissolve and add Prunes. Pour into damp, individual molds. Chill until stiff. Loosen molds by dipping in warm water. Serve garnished with whole Prunes. (Serves six)

CHILDREN'S FOOD HABITS

Children Need Certain Food and Should Be Trained to Eat It. Among the things which tend to shorten life are lax methods of bringing up children, impure air, poorly selected food and excesses of any kind. Intelligence as to

SOME RECIPES FOR VEGETABLE DISHES

It Is a Mistake to Omit Vegetables From the Daily Dietary.

Common vegetables, properly cooked, in order to be good, must be well cooked, well seasoned and hot.

We need not confine the cooking of these fall vegetables to plain boiled or mashed. There are many ways in which we can add variety by learning new ways of preparing them.

Take squash for instance, which often has a watery taste; if properly prepared makes a most tasty dish.

Steam a Hubbard squash, make smoothly, season with salt, pepper and plenty of butter, also a couple of tablespoons of cream and a bit of sugar. Beat hard and serve warming hot. Hardly any summer vegetable can surpass its deliciousness.

Then we have that homely pumpkin. Select young, small ones and boil until tender. Dice and add a rich cream sauce. You can scarcely detect the old strong flavor of pumpkins.

Green Onions on Toast. Mince a bunch of onions rather fine. Cover with cold water and set over fire. When at boiling point drain and cover again with cold water. Boil ten minutes, drain, season with one-half teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon pepper, a small piece of butter melted in flour and a few spoonfuls of milk. Have rounds of buttered toast ready and place a large spoonful of onion in center of each. Quick and delicious.

Carrot Straws. Select sweet carrots. Bitter carrots will never taste good, no matter how they are cooked. Slice the carrots, slice them lengthwise in thin pieces and again cut each slice in long pieces like jackstraws. Cook until tender in a covered vessel in as little boiling salted water as possible; season well with butter; let the carrots simmer for a few minutes in the remaining water and butter. Serve hot.

String Beans Lyonnaise. Cut three slices of lard in small pieces, cook crisp and remove from the fat. Cook a small sliced onion in the fat until yellow, add three cupsful of cooked string beans, with the bacon, one-quarter teaspoonful of salt and one-quarter teaspoonful of pepper; serve very hot. Tarragon or mint leaves are good with this dish.

Buttered Turnips. Wash, pare and cut turnips into dice. Cover with boiling water and cook until soft, about 25 minutes. Serve with melted butter, salt and pepper.

New Icings. Add two tablespoons of brown to three egg yolks. Stir in enough confectioner's sugar to make it thick enough to spread easily. Flavor with almond and a pinch of salt. Cover entire outside of cake.

Crab Apple Catsup. Wash carefully four quarts of crab apples and cook them in a granite kettle with a little water until they are soft. Press them through a coarse colander and add one and one-half quarts of sugar, two quarts of vinegar, two spoonfuls of cinnamon, one tablespoon cloves and one tablespoon each of pepper and salt. Cook the catsup until thick and smooth and seal it in glass jars. Stir the catsup constantly while it is boiling to prevent burning.

Children's Party Animals. For each animal have ready five wires, three and one-half inches long. Slip seven seeds on each wire, using one for the neck and the remaining four for legs. Blanched almonds are used for the feet, a castana nut for the body, a walnut for the head and pieces of bright-colored quills for ears and tail. The eyes, mouth, etc., are fashioned by boiling frosting and vegetable coloring.

Bean Sprouts. This new Oriental Vegetable now preferred by American housewives. For salads—alone, or in combination. Principal ingredient for making Chop Suey. There is no substitute for Fuji. More Leisure Since condensed soap came

No more back-breaking work when you use this new form of soap... the package lasts and lasts

YOU'LL want to know how Palmolive soap authorities have worked to bring you more hours of happy leisure, to shorten the time you take for dishes, for cleaning, for the weekly wash.

Our laboratories regard Kwiksolv as their greatest triumph in soap-making.

Dishes gleam. No soapy film remains to cloud when Kwiksolv is used in dishwashing.

And Kwiksolv's action is speeded by condensing. An automatic water-softener also helps. This soap will clean as you never dreamed any soap could do. The concentrated grains of Kwiksolv soak out the dirt with new speed. No more back-breaking scrubbing. Use this new soap for dishes, cleaning, laundry. It won't hurt the daintiest things. It keeps your hands white and smooth. Yet Kwiksolv seems twice as powerful as ordinary soaps.

Now you needn't be out of soap "every few minutes." A package of Kwiksolv lasts and lasts. Thus it is a real money-saver. It greatly reduces the cost of package-soap convenience. When you try Kwiksolv, we think you'll agree that we've made the most important discovery to date in soaps. Your grocer can supply you.

Kwiksolv is the name of a new soap. It's in condensed form. Just as from milk, 60% water is removed, so now from soap we remove 57% air, 20% moisture. Thus we're able to put in one 25c package the soap that formerly would have filled 2 1/2 cartons of the same size! A Kwiksolv package weighs over 1 1/2 pounds. Think of that! Probably never have you bought so much for its price.

PLAN EACH DAY'S MENU WITH THOUGHT AND CARE

The Reward Will Come in Better Health for All the Family.

Remember that the normal diet for the normal individual must supply the building and repair material in the form of protein, iron, phosphorus and lime.

Stanard's ROYAL PATENT FLOUR is Oven-tested

Every lot of Stanard's Royal Patent Flour is tested by actual baking in our own ovens at the mill. This means that every sack of Stanard's Royal Patent Flour always has that same fine texture, uniformity, richness, quality and flavor. Get a sack from any grocer, use your favorite recipe, and see how much better your bakings will be.

$100.00 Cash—100 Additional Prizes for Letters about Royal Patent Flour

Just write a letter saying why you use Royal Patent or give some useful experience or recipe. Send it to Stanard Tilton Milling Co., St. Louis Contest Dept., before Oct. 25.

You are invited to attend the free cooking school at Nuyens every day from 2 to 4 p. m. except Saturdays, conducted by Mrs. Margaret Davis, Domestic Science expert. ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH plan to have each day's menu include for each person at least one pint of milk, one egg, a serving of lean meat or fish or a dish made with cheese.

All these foods supply protein or building material and the milk and egg will, in addition, furnish a large amount of the necessary lime and phosphorus; the meat and the egg will give about half of the amount of egg required for the day and the egg will further supply vitamin D, which is needed to make the lime and phosphorus do their work properly.

Most housewives give very little thought about incorporating beef, lamb and pork small products into the family menu. The recipes given here will assist in planning dishes from tripe, salt pork, tongue, sweetbreads and pigs' feet.

Cut one pound of parboiled tripe into small pieces. Take two onions, cut into slices, fry in butter, add the tripe and season with salt and pepper. When a nice brown stir two tablespoonsful of mustard into it and serve at once.

Jellied Pigs' Feet. Cook six carefully cleaned pigs' feet in boiling water until nearly tender. Add a pinch of bay leaf, one slice onion, a small piece of red pepper, a sprig of parsley and salt to taste. Continue cooking until tender. Remove the feet, skin off fat and strain the liquid. Measure the strained broth and add an equal measure of mild vinegar and pour the mixture over the feet.

Sweetbread Entree. Soak sweetbreads in cold water one hour; parboil 20 minutes. Cut in small pieces. Season rich white sauce with paprika and little lemon juice, add sweetbreads, pour into buttered ramekins. Cover with buttered bread crumbs, bake in hot oven till brown.

Beef Tongue. One fresh beef tongue, one cup each of diced turnips, diced carrots, diced celery, fresh or canned peas, two tablespoons of drippings, two tablespoons of flour, one teaspoon of minced onion, one teaspoon of salt, one-fourth teaspoon of pepper. Wash tongue and cook for two hours until tender. Partially cool, remove skin and all unsightly portion and lay in casserole; make sauce by blending flour in drippings with liquid; add seasonings, onion and parsley. Arrange vegetables in casserole around tongue and pour over sauce. Place in oven and allow vegetables to become tender.

Salt Pork. Salt pork is used in a great many recipes. Delicious cream gravy may be made, by first trying out the finely chopped salt pork, and then blending it with flour, and finally with milk until the proper consistency. This is served with toast, with boiled potatoes, with cornbread, etc.

It may be cut into thin slices, and fried as bacon is; or it may be cut a little thicker, rolled into dry cornmeal, and fried, when we have "Mock Fish."

Poverty Stew. Some salt pork cut fine in dice and gently browned makes an excellent base for soup. For a potato soup so made—sometimes called "Poverty Stew"—use two ounces salt pork, one pound potatoes, one onion, five cups of water, a scant cup of milk, a little cream or butter, salt and other seasonings to taste. Slice potatoes and onions, put in layers with pork and on tried out fat from it. Cook in water, finish with milk and seasonings. A cream of corn soup with same foundation, a can of corn, two tablespoons of flour and two cups of milk—no water—is excellent.

Crab Apple Butter. Wash the apples carefully, cut them up without peeling or coring them, place them in a granite kettle, add enough water to almost cover them and boil slowly until they fall to pieces. Remove the apples to a granite colander and press them through the colander. Add the pulp to the water in which the apples are cooked and allow it to simmer until quite thick. Add enough sugar to sweeten the butter and if desired a little spice. Continue the boiling with constant stirring until the butter is perfectly smooth, then seal it in jars while still hot.

Meringue Suggestion. In making a meringue for a lemon pie, when it is ready, you should stir in two tablespoonsful of boiling water before you put on the meringue. Then it won't run. To each egg white use two heaping tablespoonsful of granulated sugar, one of boiling water and a half teaspoonful of vanilla.

Hot Chocolate Sauce. 1 cup unsweetened chocolate, 2 tbs. light corn syrup, 1 tbs. butter, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 tsp. vanilla. Melt chocolate over hot water. 2. Add corn syrup, butter and, very slowly, the boiling water. 3. Add sugar and stir until sugar is dissolved. 4. Bring to boiling point and boil 5 minutes. 5. Add vanilla and serve over chocolate roll.

READ ABOUT MILK TOAST

Is a Dish Which Should Be On More American Supper Tables. Don't score old-fashioned milk toast. This is a favorite hot dish among many persons who have had an unusually hearty luncheon. Milk toast is a meal in itself supplying as it does a goodly proportion of energy and food lime needed for the day.

Rye bread or whole wheat bread, toasted and buttered, over which hot milk is poured, makes the dish even more tasty and nutritious than when made of the usual white bread.

A generous serving of milk toast and some fresh fruit makes a meal that is restful for the business man who might find a heavy meal hard to digest on top of the worries of a harassing day at the office.

Maple Cinnamon Toast. Maple cinnamon toast is a delightful variation of the acceptable tea and toast served at the Sunday tea. Cut bread in thin slices and then in triangles; toast a light brown on both sides. Spread with butter, powdered maple sugar and a dusting of cinnamon. Set in hot oven two or three minutes to blend sugar and cinnamon. Serve hot.

Keep Doughnuts Soft. A slice of bread in the doughnut box will keep your doughnuts soft and light.

Reduce the Acid

In sick stomachs—instantly

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are overstimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour. Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drug store. The "Milk of Magnesia" has been the standard with physicians everywhere. Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will al-

NEBRASKA TWICE CONVICTED

Frank Sharp Electrocuted After Final Appeal to Governor

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 12.—Frank Sharp, twice convicted and twice sentenced to death for slaying his wife, was electrocuted at 6:29 a. m. today in the Nebraska penitentiary. He had awaited his death with calmness, yet frequently had maintained his innocence. Final appeal last night by members of his family to Gov. McMillan was fruitless. Sharp was 32 years old.

| COST REDUCED |
| ALMOST ONE-THIRD |
| Loans $10 to $300 |

The Household Finance Corporation, by reason of large volume of business, efficient management and economies attained after fifty years of operation, is now making a very substantial reduction in the cost of loans up to $300.

You can borrow from us for about one-third less than we formerly charged, and about one-third less than the maximum lawful rate. For example: total cost on $50 for one month is $1.25; for five months, paid in five equal monthly payments of $3.75. All other loans up to $300 at same proportionate rate.

LET US EXPLAIN OUR NEW REDUCED RATE AND TELL YOU HOW MUCH YOU WILL SAVE BY BORROWING FROM US.

You get the money without delay, return it in small monthly payments, arranged to suit your convenience. Each payment of principal reduces the interest.

Remember, one good loan. Our service is personal and confidential. We do not notify your employer, neither do we make inquiries of your friends, relatives or tradespeople.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Speculation for the advance ran riot again in today's stock market. At least a score of high-priced stocks were whirled upward 5 to 25 points in heavy selling, some of it representing week-end profit taking, forced substantial recessions in a long list of motors, tractors, farm implements and minor specialties.

Orders poured onto the floor in such gigantic volume that the ticker fell hopelessly behind the market and continued that way all day. The final quotation was not printed until 56 minutes after the market closed. Total sales were 4,686,700 shares.

Speculation for the advance gathered momentum in today's market despite the large increase in brokers' loans and unusually heavy week-end profit taking. Pools, encouraged by the recent easing of money rates, again pushed forward their favorites.

Radio reached 22 1/2 in the late afternoon without showing signs of weakness for the day. Interest in the chain store and merchandising group was revived when Woolworth, Kroger and Simmons Co. commenced to rise rapidly. General Electric, Adams Express, Wright Aero, Green Cananea Copper, Johns-Manville and American Machine & Foundry also rose extremely fast, some to new high records. International Nickel continued its record-breaking advance, soaring well on into the 180s. Sales approximately 4,000,000.

Extreme gains in some of the high-priced issues ran from 5 to nearly 20 points in first three hours or so. It was the pace of trading that the ticker fell more than 40 minutes behind the market by early afternoon. This tended to discourage trading by customers, whose speculators because of the difficulty in obtaining prompt reports on their orders and observing the trend of prices on the floor.

Montgomery Ward again led the advance, soaring 19 points to a new high record at 350. American Smelting was marked up 14 points to a new peak at 239. International Nickel ran up 12 points to a new high at 180.

Cash money renewed at 6 1/2 point, the lowest rate since last Monday, and was in plentiful supply at that figure. There was no appreciable calling of loans by early afternoon.

Radio Turn Heavy. Radio, which has been rather quiet for several weeks, suddenly stepped into the speculative spotlight by opening with a block of 10,000 shares at 220 and then moving up to a new high record at 227 1/2, an extreme gain of 9 1/2 points. Warner Bros. A. American International, American General, Warner Bros. common, Murray Corporation, Dupont, U. S. Tobacco and American Railway Express sold 5 to 7 1/2 points higher.

Motors turned heavy following the publication of the third quarter Hudson report, showing smaller earnings than in the same period last year. General Motors, which had moved up 2 points to a new high at 223 1/2, lost its gain, as did Studebaker, which had attained a new peak above 87. Hudson dropped 3 points below last night's close and Briggs 2. New York Tractors and Railroad Equipment shares also showed several weak spots.

Radio opened with a block of 10,000 shares at 220, up 2, and Studebaker with a block of 15,000 shares at 85 1/2, up 1/2 and a new high record. Initial gains of 1/2 point or so were recorded by U. S. Steel common, General Motors, Chrysler and American International Corporation.

—Jimmy Skunk.

WHEN the man who had set the traps for Jimmy Skunk went down to look at them the next day he discovered at once that one trap was sprung. The two other traps were just as he had left them. "That's queer," said the man. "I don't see how that Skunk could have sprung that trap without being caught." He picked up the trap and examined it carefully. He thought he might find some black or white hairs in it. But not a single black or white hair did he find in the trap. "That Skunk didn't spring that trap," the man decided. "Something else must have sprung it." He looked very carefully in the soft earth for Jimmy Skunk's footprints. There were none. When he had set those traps he had sprinkled some fine dust over them.

He looked very carefully in the soft earth for Jimmy Skunk's footprints.

It would have been impossible for Jimmy to have stepped in that fine dust and not leave a footprint.

"That Skunk is still under the barn," decided the man. "I'll just leave these traps here. I'll get him sooner or later."

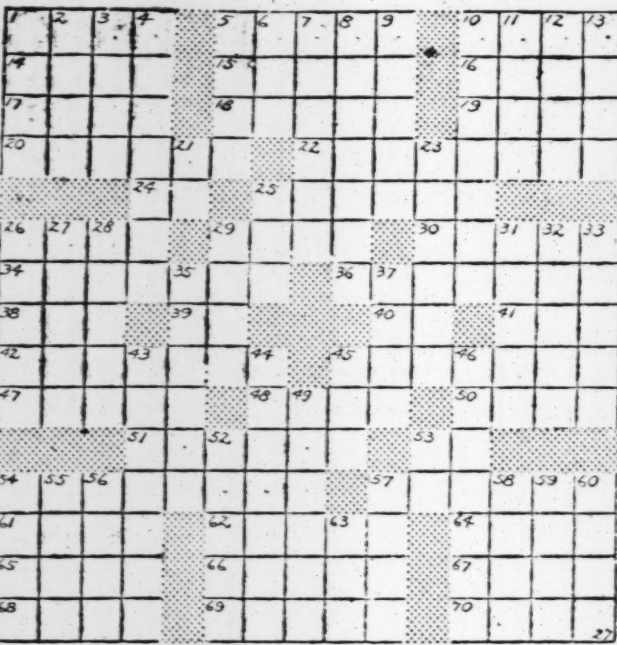

So he reset the wicked steel trap that had been sprung, sifted more dust over it and went on his way. He was sure he would have that Skunk.

Now Jimmy had been right near that opening when the man visited the trap. He had kept quiet, but he hadn't missed anything that was going on. He knew just what that man was doing. He listened to the sound of the man's footsteps dying away. Then he sighed. "It's no use," said Jimmy to himself. "For me to think of getting out this way. There isn't a single opening I can get out. I guess I've got to do some work. I don't like digging, but it looks to me as if I shall have to dig this time. It's a good thing I can dig. If I couldn't dig I would be in a peck of trouble."

He went back to the other end of the barn. He went along the edge until he found a place where the earth was fairly soft. Then he began to dig. He was going to dig down under the foundation. He didn't hurry about it. You know Jimmy seldom hurries. There was nothing to hurry for. So he just took his time about it. He dug a while; then he rested a while. Then he dug a while longer; then he rested a while. It wasn't very much of a job after all. Sooner than he had dared hope would be the case, he was under the underpinning. Then he began to dig up. Presently he poked his head right outside. Jimmy drew a long breath. Then he shook himself and combed the dirt out of his coat and made himself neat, for Jimmy Skunk is a very neat person.

What do you think Jimmy did then? He deliberately walked around to the end of the barn where the hole was. He wanted to see those traps from the outside. You see, Jimmy has just as much curiosity as anyone else. But he took great care not to go too near them. At first he couldn't see them, for they had been sprinkled with dust. It looked as if there were no traps there. But Jimmy knew better. There were some small stones lying about. Jimmy turned and with his blindfold he kicked some of these stones toward the place where he thought the traps were. At first nothing happened. Then a fairly good-sized stone rolled right onto the pan of one of those traps. Two wicked jaws leaped into the air and came together with a snap. It was so sudden that, although he had expected it, Jimmy Skunk jumped. Then he turned and ambled away. He ambled back toward Farmer Brown's. He knew there were no traps over there. He knew that on Farmer Brown's farm no traps were ever allowed. "There is nothing like being among friends," thought Jimmy. (Copyright, 1933.)

Enjoy the pleasure of this new flavor for breakfast and guard the treasure of good health

A New Flavor That Perks Up Every Appetite.

You'll like Heinz Rice Flakes first of all because of their delicate, nut-like flavor and crisp, crunchy goodness. You'll like them best of all because of their healthful, happy effect! For many, many years the makers of cereal foods have been trying to find the way to give a delicious, ready-to-eat cereal the properties of a gentle, natural laxative. Heinz has done it! By a process absolutely new to cereal making and owned exclusively by Heinz. Heinz Rice Flakes—made entirely from the natural "roughage" of rice—contain the natural "roughage" of the original rice. Not a coarse, "rough" rice, but a highly refined, "smooth" rice that is good for children as well as grown-ups. Eat Heinz Rice Flakes for their flavor and your health!

THE GARDEN
IN THE FALL

(National Garden Bureau)

COMBINATION BULB PLANTINGS.

THE finest and most interesting display of early spring in the garden is made by combination plantings of the hardy bulbs, mingling groups of tulips, hyacinths and narcissus, with the taller crown imperials as accents, and the smaller bulbs thickly studded over the bed between the larger bulbs. By this method a colorful display may start as early as a February thaw with the first snowdrops and last through March until the late days of May with the Darwin, Breeder and Cottage tulips. The earliest color will be supplied by the crocuses. Siberian squills, glory of the snow or chionodoxas, with the hyacinths. Then the daffodils and the early tulips will give the brilliant reds and yellows with the hyacinths adding their delicious fragrance and heavy spikes in the various blues, red, rose, pink, yellows and whites with the fritillaries, or checkered lilies, coming along between the early tulips and the late crop.

Many beautiful bulb borders have been planned and illustrated in garden publications, but this style of planting is one that does not require great study because nearly all the early bulbs have soft colors, so discords need not be greatly feared. For bulb beds later in the season, the mainstay, of course, must be shallow rooting annuals which either may be sown over the beds or transplanted between the bulbs as the bloom fades and the leaves start to mature.

For such a border the bulbs needed would be snowdrops, crocuses, scillas, chionodoxas, hyacinths, grape hyacinths, daffodils, tulips late and early, and the two fritillaries, the crown imperial and the guinea hen flower of checkered lily. No more interesting and colorful arrangement can be attained during the entire year than such a bulb border.

It is an admirable arrangement for gardeners who spend most of the summer away from home during the warmer weather. The bulbs may be left to ripen their foliage and the only care necessary will be an occasional hoeing to remove the weed crop after the foliage of the bulbs has disappeared.

Broadcasting seed of Shirley poppies over the bulb border in fall or early April will start a crop of brilliant bloom to come into color shortly after the bulbs have done their duty. It will be necessary only to thin the poppies to a foot apart to have another brilliant bed ready for a June and July display.

An Unpleasant Duty.

A very greasy sink may be cleaned well and without loss of temper if dusted well with scouring powder and then sprinkled over with ammonia. A heavy rag and hot water will wipe out all grease and the ammonia will kill the nasty odor.

Homemade Codfish Cakes.

One cup salt codfish, 2 cups diced potatoes, 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

1 egg, 1 tablespoon butter. Shred fish into small pieces. Boil fish and potatoes until potatoes are done. Drain and beat until the mixture is smooth and then add other ingredients. Drop by spoonfuls into deep boiling fat and fry until a golden brown. If desired, the paste may be formed into balls and dipped in egg and crushed crumbs. Then fried in deep fat.

Lively...or listless?

the answer is up to you, mother!

MOTHER, don't blame your child when he is cross, dull, or listless. In nine cases out of ten, incorrect diet is the cause.

Serve delicious food, of course. But be sure it "pays its way." See that it provides the energy-building elements that active lives demand.

Thus thousands of intelligent mothers today insist on Baby Label Bread. It is rich in calories. Packed with vital body-building elements.

Baby Label produces muscle as well as energy. It puts solid flesh on growing little bodies...hardens teeth...builds strong, sturdy bones and active minds.

"WATCH THESE ROSE BUSHES GROW!" says FRANCIS PLATT. "I take care, but it's fun." Francis' mother says that he grows all right. Plenty of Baby Label Bread for its high nutrition value, is a good diet rule for growing children.

Baby Label Bread is splendid from the "housekeeping" point of view, too. It slices easily...retains its freshness...delights everyone by its delicious flavor.

Every loaf is made from carefully selected ingredients. Highest-quality flour. Rich, wholesome milk. Pure cane sugar.

Now, Madam, a word of warning. At times you may be urged to accept some ordinary bread.

Let your grocer distinctly understand that no bread but Baby Label will satisfy. Do not trust your family's precious health to ordinary, untried brands.

It is at your grocer's, Madam, delivered fresh twice every day. Welle Boettler Bakery. Continental Baking Company.

WHAT factors make the perfect cup of coffee? First, the quality of the coffee beans as they come from the plantation; second, the care and skill with which they are blended and roasted; third, the condition in which the coffee reaches you—its freshness, crispness, and flavor—

It is the careful attention given these factors that is responsible for the rich, mellow flavor you find in every cup of Old Judge.

Only the choicest coffee beans grown, from the finest plantations, are good enough for Old Judge. Its quality is superb! And a corps of experts at our plant keeps it so. By constant testing, accepting only the best, they maintain the high standard that we have set. Experts at blending and roasting keep this splendid coffee first in flavor and goodness.

Packed in air-tight tins, sealed first on the inside, then on the outside, Old Judge comes to you doubly sealed in its sanitary package, as fresh and full of flavor as the day it was packed.

Settles the Question

When buying coffee, remember these facts about Old Judge. They guarantee that you will receive the same wonderful coffee goodness with EVERY can.
